My dear Alan,

I am taking the liberty of sending you the mss. of Michael Krohnen's book THE KITCHEN CHRONICLES: 1001 Lunches With J. Krishnamurti. This will be our second book published, out by November of this year.

I would appreciate it very much if you could write a three or four sentences blurb for the back of the book. Your name associated with this unusual book would help with sales.

As you will discover, Michael relationship with K. was unusual, and K.'s fine sense of humor makes this an remarkable memoir.

Yours affectionately,

Mark
