Dear Dr. Anderson:

Your attorney, Mr. Crandall Condra, sent his redraft of the release to Mr. Sol Rosenthal who sent a copy to me. The copies you sent to my two California addresses were also received, for which I thank you.

Mr. Rosenthal also sent copies to certain of the Krishnamurti Foundation trustees so that we may all be in the same context in the evaluation of the changes that were made.

It is constructive that the two attorneys familiar with such matters are now in contact with each other so that they can resolve the differences to the mutual satisfaction of their respective clients.

We realize that attorneys' time is not always available when desired, but surely we and you will do all we can to expedite this.

If there is need to reach me, please use both my California addresses as given below. My brother and I keep in touch with each other so that if for a time I am not at either place, there will be no problem.

Sincerely,

Martin
