Rebecca,

I wanted to send you a brief note to let you know my thoughts are with you and share some thoughts regarding Judge Gilliam. I spent a wonderful year clerking for Judge Gilliam in 1988. Even though I have had very limited contact with Judge Gilliam over the past 12 years, the Judge has remained a powerful presence in my life. What I learned during my one year with Judge Gilliam had virtually nothing to do with how to be a good lawyer. Instead, by spending a year with the Judge, I learned an invaluable and unforgettable lesson about how to be a good person. When I began my clerkship, I was fresh out of law school, full of concepts of "justice" I had learned about in school. By watching Judge Gilliam, I quickly learned what true justice is -- justice in the way people are treated, including treating the lowest elements in society with dignity and grace. It is no wonder that virtually everyone loved Judge Gilliam.

I have thought about Judge Gilliam often over the last years, but unfortunately my thoughts did not translate into letters or emails. The world is a better place because of Judge Gilliam, and I believe that I too am a better person because of him.
