San Diego Unified School District has undertaken an ambitious voluntary integration program in response to a court order to desegregate San Diego City Schools. The success of this voluntary effort is critical to the future of San Diego and the magnet schools program adopted by the school district is an imaginative and positive response to the problem.

Judge Louis Welch, in approving the City School's Voluntary Program, has given this community a chance that many other communities do not have, and we should make every effort to insure that the program succeeds. The City Schools Integration Task Force appointed by Judge Welch and Chaired by Police Chief Bill Kolender, has the important responsibility of monitoring the individual programs to insure that they provide both a quality education and an integrated learning experience. That Task Force needs your help and I urge you to give it your financial support.

Thank you very much for your attention. I appreciate your concern for our City and its citizens.

Sincerely,

Pete Wilson
