Dear Sgt. Reynolds:

Thank you for discussing with me the candidacy of Councilman Leon Williams for Supervisor.

Councilman Leon Williams well understands the workings of the Sheriff's Department, having served as an administrative assistant to the sheriff for nine years. In that capacity, he conducted studies which led to the decentralization of the department as well as other studies which led to innovations in the department.

He is committed to keeping dangerous criminals off the streets by placing petty offenders in work camps and other public service, making room in our prisons and jails for hardened criminals.

He also has compassion for the difficult working conditions of deputy sheriffs and would work closely with your department as a member of the Board of Supervisors.

Among his supporters are Sheriff John Duffy and Jack Pearson, president of the Police Officers Association. I would be pleased to have you contact them for further references.

Councilman Leon Williams has a well-deserved reputation for being tough, but fair. Tough in dealing with all the groups a public official must, ranging from public employees to special interests. Fair in finding a solution to benefit the voters. It's this reputation plus his outstanding experience in dealing with the problems of government that make him the choice of voters throughout the Fourth Supervisorial District.
