INSTRUCTIONS

CITIZENS FOR LEON WILLIAMS VOLUNTEERS

1. Thank you very much for agreeing to walk for Leon Williams. This effort is crucial to Leon's winning a seat on the Board of Supervisors.

2. Remember, at all times, courtesy is our byword. Getting angry or being anything less than friendly with potential voters could hurt our chances in this campaign.

3. In this walking effort, we will be dropping or handing a piece of literature to voters in precincts throughout the Fourth Supervisorial District.

4. Our walking will begin May 1 and continue as long as our spirit and shoe leather hold out.

5. We want precinct walkers to work primarily between the hours of 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. on weekends. Also, some walking will be conducted from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. on weekdays.

6. You will be given a precinct index list with registered voters and their addresses indicated. You will also have a map that locates the general bounds of each precinct attached to your list.

7. In walking precincts, be sure to wear comfortable, loose fitting sports clothes. Tight clothes and uncomfortable shoes can make precinct walking an unpleasant experience.

8. Knock at the door of each registered voter, identify yourself as a volunteer worker for Councilman Leon Williams, who is a candidate for the Board of Supervisors. Hand the voter the piece of literature and ask them if they've made a decision on who to vote for in the election. If they say yes for Leon Williams, mark a "y" next to their name on the precinct list. If they say they are voting against Leon, mark the list with an "n". If they don't know, mark "dk".

9. Don't get into a long discussion with voters. If they have extensive questions on Leon's position, have them call the campaign office at 234-5544.

10. If voters want Leon's platform, provide the following information:

    1. He wants to work to reduce unemployment.

    2. He wants to save public money by reducing duplicate city and county services.

    3. He believes the region needs an adequate and planned housing supply.

    4. He wants to make sure there is plenty of room in jails for dangerous criminals by placing petty offenders in work camps.

    5. He wants to provide job training to get welfare recipients into the job force.

11. Please don't provide your personal opinions on issues to voters.

12. Have a good time! Remember, we're in this to elect a supervisor who will work hard for the district.

13. When you have completed your precinct, return your material to 3024 E Street.
