Arnold Schwarzenegger brings the Inner-City Games to San Diego!

Arnold and the Executive Commissioner of the Greater San Diego Inner-City Games, Junior Seau, are helping local kids say YES to education, fitness, and sports, and NO to gangs, drugs, and violence.

The goal of the GSDICG is to provide healthy, positive choices for youngsters; not as a one time special event, but year round. In partnership with the San Diego County Office of Education, San Diego City Schools, and many other county-wide organizations, the GSDICG is implementing programs designed to provide positive mind and body experiences for children and adolescents in grades 3-12.

One of the largest undertakings of the GSDICG will be to offer sport and activity clinics for at risk youth throughout San Diego County. These clinics will emphasize fun, learning, activity, and non-competitive play. Additionally, the GSDICG is also offering the following components:

OPERATION FITKIDS "SAFE HAVENS"

Safe Havens offer a place for adolescents to be physically active during "high risk hours" (after school, weekends, summer vacations) as well as interaction with positive adult role models. Educational seminars and events on subject such as nutrition and healthy food choices are planned as well.

FAMILY TIME OUT PROGRAM

Due to the generosity of San Diego's professional sports teams, colleges and universities, private enterprise and individuals, children and parents can enjoy a free Family Time Out. Activities include:

- Sporting events
- Movies
- Plays
- Concerts
- Museums
- Art Galleries

EDUCATIONAL/ CULTURAL

Through the assistance of the San Diego County Office Of Education and the San Diego City School District, all children are being offered an opportunity to participate in one of the educational components. The activities support the "Everyone A Reader" program and encourage reading outside of school by requiring all participating students to have a public library card. Educational/cultural components include:

- Essay Contest
- Poster Contest
- Picture Book Contest
- Photography Contest
- Dance Contest
