Year?

CURE Agenda for Thursday, June 5, at Shuf Swift's house, 3910 Alicia Dr., 223 8602.

One purpose of this meeting is to look to the coming year, predict the needs, gauge our own resources, establish priorities, then organize to meet these priorities. The following is a suggested agenda:

1. Newsletter. Establish budget, schedule, new editorial board.

2. How do we work with, utilize, and effect change in the other media? Who will do it?

3. Shall we keep and revitalize the telephone tree?

4. We have several thousand employment cards. These need to be distributed, money collected, and printer paid. Who will do this?

5. We have been fairly active in many ways with education problems. Shall we continue this effort? How? With whom, with what other groups? Who will do this?

6. Shall we become more involved in problems of law and justice and the problems of police-community relations? Who will do this?

7. Shall we develop a pamphlet for Effective Social Action? Should we pursue other efforts aimed at instructing or developing social action?

8. The CURE membership list needs to be culled through and purified. Dot Lloyd has a plan to request return of undelivered or undesired newsletters. Shall we proceed?

9. The Scott Foundation has agreed to give us $1980. But we need more money. How shall we raise it? Who will take charge of this?

10. We are assisting in voter registration is Southeast. What continued emphasis shall we give this?

11. Are there projects or problems not included that should be? Are we spread too thin? Should we establish priorities? Should we give some problems major emphasis at different times?

12. Possible committees: Membership. Communications. Finance. Newsletter. Placement. Employment. Education. Law & Justice (Police-Community Relations). Social Action. Media. Voter Registration.

13. How shall we organize?

14. Who will be the new chairman?

15. What will be a quorum?

16. How shall we conduct our meetings?

17. When and where shall we have our meetings?

18. CURE on EOC Board.

19. Pickets Saturday

By-law changes

Urban Coalition on next agenda.
