COUNCIL TOURS EXPERT TALKS

A recent orientation meeting conducted by Mr. Samuel Tappis of UNITOURS spelled out some of the real advantages of going "Council." First of all are the small groups with everyone getting on a first name basis and not a crybaby or complainer in the bunch. If you go Council, you are surrounded by wit, charm, intelligence and high spirits. How many other tours can make that claim? You're traveling with Jewish Council Members and a better security blanket you'll never find. Then we get on to the business of a SCHEDULED air line and the full escort by professional but "haymish" tour conductors,

PAID UP MEMBERSHIP MEETING

An exciting luncheon meeting has been planned by Membership Chairman Edith Reeder and Coordinator Fran Feldman for Tuesday, March 3rd. Following lunch, a wig and make-up s session will be offered by "THE DEMONSTRATION", a Fashion Valley store.

Of special interest to members will be the awarding of a raffle ticket to those who bring in a new PAID UP member before February 25th. That raffle ticket is for a Council Tour to Israel. How is that for a bonus! Talk "Council" to your friends and earn your chance for a great trip. Edith may be

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

ODE TO THE DESERVING

"Foreign Interlude" was a Proxy's dream
Everything was either sublime or supreme,
To promote Council Tours which deserve their fame
Plus fun and fund-raising was our aim.
President of Council is a position of ease
When you have good chairmen, life's a breeze,
Just select co-chairmen Dorothy Spechler and Marilyn Klein
You can relax and be assured it will all go fine.
One hundred and sixty members and guests
Enjoyed the evening--it was the best.

So, to Marilyn and Dorothy my adulations
And their husbands Arvin and Sid, thanks and congratulations.
Naomi Eisman, the Grodin fashion show was a perfect delight
And Sue and Art Hoffman, the bar really capped the night.
Our fabulous Buffet Chairman was Lois Berson
For this gastronomical extravaganza you were just the right person.
Jac's the Caterer, you deserve your fame
A phone call to you will be the name of the game.
Lee Lemson for music to enjoy and hear
Thanks a million, you're really a dear.
With Faye and Lou Orzech we knew we had reason
To toast our good fortune--you're the find of the season
Our treasury you did inflate
For the auction you made great.
My hat's off to you, Norman and Sivia Mann
You're model members, and I'm glad you said "We can".
To Gladys Block, who looked so smart
We knew you were a winner right from the start.
Eleanor Hoffman, a new member with great style
You're a beautiful model, and oh--what a smile.
To Eva and Stanley Liss a very special kiss,
To Minne Winter our thanks for her care of our money
And Bob Winter, a model, is handsome and funny.
Thanks to Emory Nussbaum who served at the bar
And his Eleanor--a Council shining star.
To Edith Reder and her Herb
You were, as always, magnificent, superb.

(cont.)

To Doris Stern and her husband Chuck
Your joining Council was our good luck.
To Florence Sachett and Lillian Weiner
Your telephoning make you each a life-liner.
To Aunt Dotsie, Robby Lemson, Nancy Goldstein and Harriet Fein
You're experienced Go-Go girls now--next is the chorus line.
To Ann Dann who donated her artistry of paint
We thank you so kindly, you're really a saint.
To Frances Brown, Dorothy Tennebaum, Evelyn Stolarsky and Glass, Jan
To Lotte Garber, Charlotte Haas and Feldman, Fran--
Mr. Danziger, Esq., Bill Berson, Bernie Glass, Mark Breier
You certainly came through when the need was dire.
To the JCC Senior Adults who created our decor
Such cooperation! Who could ask for anything more?

Involvement, cooperation and lots of fun
Make NCJW the best under the sun--
We've had a 1970 Council coup
So for this and much more, NCJW and I--thank YOU.

Ruth Taylor, President

..."TABOO TOPICS"...

A room filled to overflowing, with teenagers watching from the hallway, was the order of the evening when the film High School was the Taboo topic at the Jewish Community Center on Jan.4th. The film depicted some of the major problems that beset our schools today, running the gamut from overcrowded classrooms to teachers, ill-trained to deal with the challenges of today. An electrifying interchange followed between the highly animated audience and a panel of experts, consisting of Mrs. Louise Dyer, Pres. of the Board of Education; Dr. William Stone, Director of Secondary Schools Division; Ted Tadman, teacher at Crawford; Forbes Dickinson, Instructor at Grossmont Junior College; Jack Martin, student at Patrick Henry; and Kathy Taylor, college student and daughter of our President, Ruth Taylor (we are proud of you, Kathy). Harold Keen, noted T.V. Commentator was moderator.

A study group and a possible action group to be sponsored by N.C.J.W. is now in the process of trying to find a chairman. If you are interested in helping, please call Ruth, 286-2181.

THE SAN DIEGO UNION

Van Deerlin Tells Mideast Concern

WASHINGTON — President Nixon has been urged by Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, to clear up doubts raised by Secretary of State William Rogers' recent Mideast proposal.

"I do not believe we or any other outside power should attempt to dictate the terms of an agreement among the hostile parties in the Middle East," Van Deerlin said.

Among the many San Diegans who have contacted Van Deerlin on this issue are Leonard J. Zanville, president of the United Jewish Federation of San Diego; Ruth Taylor, San Diego president for the National Council of Jewish Women; David Flaum, president of New Life Club, an organization of survivors of Nazi concentration camps, and Rabbis Joel S. Goor, S. H. Markowitz, Sheldon Stauber and Israel E. Weisfield.

It pays to holler!

Dear Friends:

I was glad to hear from you, and from a host of other San Diego friends, concerning latest developments touching on the Middle East. My first reaction to the recent speech by Secretary Rogers was the same as yours-- I suspected that he might be setting a new American policy inimical to Israel. And, like you, I am convinced that a just and lasting peace in that part of the world cannot be imposed by outside forces. (VAN DEERLIN'S LETTER CONTINUED BY QUOTING STATE DEPARTMENT POLICY).

So much for what the State Department says. You and I both know that diplomatic action is more important than words. In a situation so volatile as this one, the State Department understandably has chosen to speak in words that encourage the opposing forces to "cool it."

But let me assure you that I, for one, will refuse to be fooled. As in the past, I intend to be counted among Israel's supporters in the United States Congress. I regard most seriously the commitment we made to Israel under President Truman in 1948. I would strongly oppose efforts by the present Administration, or any other, to weaken that commitment-- specifically, to impose upon Israel conditions not agreed to by that nation in direct and voluntary negotiation with her neighbor nations.

Sincerely,

Lionel Van Deerlin

Presenting.....

the SENIOR ADULTS

ENJOY! ENJOY!

Who made the lovely decorations for Council's gala, FOREIGN INTERLUDE? -------

The craft class of the Senior Social Club, of course! And now they are making gorgeous flowers for their own installation, in addition to sewing for Israel, folk-dancing, and community singing.

"You do not know how much we appreciate what you Council girls are doing for us!" This comment we hear continuously, and it is well deserved by our wonderful volunteers; we are fortunate to have such excellent ambassadors for Council.

A NEW VOLUNTEER

Shirley Newman (Mrs. Sanford) has just volunteered for the Senior craft class. The Seniors as well as Council thank you, Shirley, for coming forward to offer your help.

YOU SEAMSTRESSES AND BRIDGE EXPERTS------

The Seniors could use one more "Sewing Lady", not a sewing instructor, but a Council member who can help them with their sewing. They would also love to have someone teach them how to play bridge. Come all you bridge experts!

Give Council about 2 hours per week and make some of the Seniors very happy! Please let us know what day and time is convenient for you.

FROM OUR FILES

"My husband and I have just returned from your European Highlite Tour and want to tell you what a marvelous experience it was . . . every moment was perfect and spent to its fullest."

MRS. I. L. R. — Yonkers, N.Y.

"The fact that 42 strangers left New York and came back friends, sorry to part—all agreed that this was a memorable trip—was for the most part due to the fact that our Tour Conductor was interesting, fascinating, helpful and most of all, efficient in every way."

MRS. J. W. — Merrick, N.Y.

"We commend you for this beautifully planned (Mexican) holiday. It was truly a revelation to have had everything handled without any hitch and as a member of Council for long-standing, may I say that if this is any example of any other planned tours, my husband and I could heartily recommend them."

MRS. I. R. L. — Richmond, Va.

"You have provided us with a nearly perfect trip, to an area of the world (the Orient) where lesser care and attention to detail could easily result in one's trip becoming quite a worthless experience."

MRS. J. S. — St. Petersburg, Fla.

"Never have we seen a trip (Israel) so well organized and still flexible when circumstances warranted."

DR. & MRS. R. S. — Warren, Mich.

MEET OUR NEW MEMBERS

Bubbling with enthusiasm for San Diego - its climate, scenic beauty and the friendly people - is Lois Zion, a recent arrival from St. Paul, Minnesota, and a Life Member of Council. Her husband, James, is an executive with McDonald's Hamburgers. Their family includes Sara, 5, Peter, 8, a married son and a three year old grandson.
Lois was a very busy community leader in the Twin Cities. She was Ways & Means Chairman for Council, as well as a volunteer on Headstart and retarded children projects. She is also a past president of Hadassah and served on the United Jewish Federation and Mt. Sinai Hospital Boards.

Former Canadian from Toronto, Mrs. Lou Orzech (Fay) and family moved to our sunny city recently from Albuquerque, New Mexico. She and Lou have four children - Sharon, 15, Donna, 13, Paul, 8, and Matt, 5.
This busy mother has always found time for community activities. In Albuquerque she served as Ways & Means Chairman for her Temple Sisterhood and as Ad Book Chairman for Hadassah.

TRAVEL FILM SERIES

Council Tours invite all members and friends to a film on the Orient on Thursday, February 19, 1970. The showing at 8:00 p.m. will be held at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Stolarsky, 4444 Algeciras St., in Point Loma. Tea and Fortune Cookies will be served. (Also coffee and cake) Please RSVP to Frances Brown at 286-3987, or Marilyn Klein at 583-3434.

MARCH BULLETIN DEADLINE:

February 20. With or without Hysterics, but please type them. We thank you. Rae and Doris.

When Faye joined Council here, she immediately offered her talents and went to work on "Foreign Interlude", contacting merchants for auction items. Husband Lou was a great help to her.
Now we are delighted to congratulate Fay as our new Ways & Means Chairman!

REPORT ON "FOREIGN INTERLUDE"

Your two chairmen for the Tours event are happy to report that the affair was most successful socially and financially. 149 persons attended, including members, husbands and guests, enjoying the Clubroom of the Oakwood Gardens Apts. in Pacific Beach. Everyone was favorably impressed by plentiful food, the style show produced by Grodin's of Fashion Valley, and the auction sale which netted the greatest part of the profits. A net profit of $420.00 was realized.
We wish to sincerely thank each and every member who lent a hand or gave advice or offered consolation when things did not seem to be goihg well. It was our pleasure to be of service.

A LOVE LETTER

Dear Marilyn Klein and Dorothy Spechler:

To both of you for the great job you did as Co-Chairmen of a beautiful evening, Foreign Interlude,, I send my thanks. I'm sorry I had to miss it by being out of town. Every word I've heard about it tells me how lovely, how "hamish" and successful the entire evening was. I sincerely thank you both and your committee for making the evening possible for Council members and for raising additional funds for our work.
