San Diego in the 1980's will need Leon Williams, an experienced, devoted, tough, fairminded Councilmember with the strength to face the issues of the 80's.

He isn't afraid to work hard to get things done and this combined with his belief in all people have served him well.

His accomplishments as Principal Assistant to the Sheriff; as Executive Director of the Neighborhood Youth Corps and Urban League and as Council Member have won him many commendations.

He is chairman of the Council Transportation and Land Use Committee; member of Community Development Steering Committee of the National League of Cities and California League of Cities.
