[MS-0087.005.004.035]

OPPORTUNITIES FOR INTERRACIAL INVOLVEMENT

I. Dialogues

A. CIC--Citizens' Interracial Committee--major catalyst for increased interracial understanding in San Diego area. Chairman--Carroll Waymon, 239-0871.

1. City Hall Dialogues. Invitational, but interested citizens allowed as space permits. Fridays, 9:30 a.m. Bi-weekly. Conference Room, City Hall in Civic Center.

2. "Design for Understanding." Seven-meeting series set up by CIC at request of sponsoring groups.

B. Dialogues in Action

1. Unitarian Church, 4190 Front Street, Tuesdays, 7:45 p.m. Leaders: Ann Merrill, Kenny Denman, Joe McGuire.

2. Pacific Beach Congregational Church group. Begins new session October 21. Leader: Oscar Jones. Phone Mrs. Thompson, 488-2477, for information.

3. Pacific Beach Methodist Church. Wednesday nights. Leader: Oscar Jones.

4. UCSD Alumni (from UC Extension Community Seminars) meet Thursday nights. Phone Esther Walker, 262-1586.

5. Jim Jones is leader for several dialogues. One meets Tuesday nights at 1476 Reed Street. Phone Phil Sloan, 273-1087. For current picture regarding other ongoing and new dialogues, phone Sarah Birnbaum, 488-9159.

C. Developing New Dialogues: Ask CIC Educational consultant Rosemary Layng for information sheets called "Discussion-Dialogue."

1. University of California Extension, 453-200, Ext. 2076, sets up community seminars.

2. La Jolla Presbyterian Church will be organizing new groups. Call Reverend Walter James, 454-0713.

3. YWCA groups forming. Contact Barbara James, 273-5486.

4. Serra Mesa Group. Call Melba Margolis, 277-0983.

(Also, call your nearest action group contact for dialogue information.)

II. Volunteer work on Specific Projects

A. Community-wide study and action groups invite participation:

1. CURE--Citizens United for Racial Equality--serves to improve communication among groups. Chairman is Shuford Swift, 223-0602. For Newsletter regarding activities of all groups combating racism, send $2 to CURE, Room 502, 520 E Street, San Diego.

2. MER--Movement for Educational Reconstruction acts in four areas of concern: curriculum, personnel, facilities, local control. Chairman is Reverend Ed Hansen, 264-0327.

A. Community-wide study and action groups (cont'd.)

3. San Diego League of Women Voters--focus on the Urban Crisis this year. (232-8583, 2454 Fourth Avenue, San Diego 92101) Also San Dieguito LWV, Mrs. Valeta Sueppel, 753-3872.

B. Interracial Action Projects

1. YWCA Mothers' Program— Volunteers help those who care for children, ages 6 weeks to 6 years) while mothers meet with social workers, hear experts speak, plan excursions, etc. Also provide transportation. Jean Mierlot, 477-1163.

2. La Jolla Community Education Service--Tutor children, afternoons. Mrs. Philip Rudnick, 454-7459.

3. Good Neighbor Center--help with classes, child care, aid to newcomers. Mrs. Gregg Nesbitt, 276-1337.

4. Operation Adventure--coordinates program for children--needs volunteer teachers and helpers. Phone Metro, (Methodist Mission in Metropolis) Reverend Richard Shanor, 234-3158.

5. Tutoring--San Diego Unified School District; both during school hours and after; all ages. Phone Mrs. Lottie Hess, 298-4681, Ext. 491.

6. People-to-People Project--Bob Coates/Reverend George McKinney, 236-3434 or 262-0421.

7. New Scene Players, 3880 Franklin Avenue, San Diego 92113. Want participation from whole community.. Roland McFarland.

8. CORE--Office help needed by Congress of Racial Equality, 2963 Imperial. George Stevens, 232-2738.

9. Institute of Science--Young boys develop science projects. Phone Tom Watts, 479-0587, to offer time, transportation, scientific training, etc.

10. Self Help Through Leadership Training--Secretarial, typing help needed. Rob Richards, 239-0325.

11. Better Boys, Inc.--time, tools, money needed. J. W. McIlwaine, 239-0363 30th and Commercial.

12. Americans Against Racism--Mrs. Ray Campbell, 273-2709.

13. Head Start--Reverend Rothaar, 264-0179

14. Cardign Center, 2422 Congress, San Diego. Phone 297-4115, preferably before 2:30 p.m. to offer help in office work, library, publicity, programs.

15. Mexican-American Neighbor Organization (MANO)--President, Jack McGee (home 277-4702, work 437-6559). Help in clinics in San Diego, also in Tijuana. Some Spanish helpful.

16. Inter-Community Involvement Group (ICIG)--Call Don Logens, Chairman, 239-0281, to do research in governmental practices; help in youth programs (e.g. Teen Posts)

B. Interracial Action Projects (cont'd.)

17. The Southeast ACCESS Center (Area-Wide Community Centers Employment Service and Self-Improvement) needs time and services. Call Clarence Jones, 262-7591.

(Also phone Joan Smith, Volunteer Bureau, 239-2072, for information, or the Message Information Center, 232-6621.)

III. Local Coordinating and Action Groups

A. Human Relations Committees

1. Oceanside (Commission). Call Mayor's Office.

2. Escondido--Robert Garrolo, 746-3273

3. Serra Mesa--Mrs. Ralph Margolis, 277-0983

4. Ocean Beach --Frank Hank, 274-0266

5. Heartland--Reverend Robert Kesler, 466-4163

6. Poway--Mrs. Ann Nelson, 277-4515, 748-0710

7. University City--Steve Newnham, 459-3821 or 234-3357

B. Other human relations action groups

1. La Jolla--SOFA--Strongly Oriented for Action, 454-4610, Reverend Wormley.

2. Del Mar, Solana Beach, Cardiff--ACRE--Active Citizens for Racial Equality--Ann Hohmeyer, 755-2826; Reverend Ron Bobo, 753-1994

3. Claremont--Mission the Community--Mrs. Norman Adsit, 278-7245.

4. Pacific Beach--Committee for Racial Justice--Virginia Thompson, 488-2477

5. La Mesa--Concerned, Committed, Involved--Mrs. Barbara Collis, 465-8031

6. Point Loma--PEOPL--Shuford Swift, 223-8602

Prepared by La Jolla-San Diego Branch, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. Please report corrections or additions to Jane Bishop, 459-2719.