suppose to know you?"

It was a weird dream because then I woke up kind of disturbed until I realized it might have been my father. I know your subconsious works out problems through dreams, so I'm not saying he really "visited" me – but what was strange was that he was in jeans and a cowboy shirt. And I've never once pictured him that way. Hence my question – did he ever wear jeans?

P.S. I just remembered something I wanted to ask you. Did Jack ever wear jeans? I had this strange dream I was home with my family one night. There was a knock at the door and my husband called out "Who is it?" - But there was no answer. A man opened the door and walked into our house. He walked straight past everyone but came directly to me, extending his hand. He never smiled or said anything. (Actually he said "I've come to take my baby home.") And I said "am I

Dear Judge Gilliam and Rebecca,
I am enclosing some snapshots from the Catfish Club's 25th. That day I had a photographer friend take some slides and make prints for you and Rev. Smith. I wanted to get them to you sooner, but they were lost in processing! I hope you enjoy them as a memento of that wonderful day.
I have been watching the newspaper for any news on the ground breaking ceremony for the Kimbrough Elementary school, but have not seen any mention yet. If you hear anything on it, please don't let me miss out.
I know at times your life must be a struggle. I remember you both often in my prayers. Here's wishing you a wonderful and joyous 1996!
Your friend,
