Dear Friend of Mine:

Get up and out of that bed and head back to San Diego. We need you here. You may not know it, but this is the first time I have made a legal career decision without your advice and consent. I am running for election to Judge Ehrenfreund's Superior seat. I did this with the assurance that I have your blessings and support. You remain in my thoughts and prayers.

Affectionately,

J.O. Littlejohn.
