Earl –
I wish I knew what words would comfort and heal you – I would speak them. Please get well. Know we love you and wish you home. Sherry

Dear Earl & Rebecca,

You've been in our hearts & minds and the amount of good wishes flowing your way is a tidal wave! Lots of Love, Sue Finlay

Carl:

My thoughts and prayers are with you. I remember lots of fun trials in front of you.

Alson Hegeman

I realize being waited on every minute has its advantages but I'm sure Rebecca would do the same at home. So – come home soon.

Hi Earl,

Sorry to hear you have been having such a tough time. Looking forward to things turning around & having you back in the lunchroom. Hang in there!

Penny

EARL,

HANG IN THERE.
MY THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS
ARE WITH YOU.
