William B. Kolender, Chief of Police
801 West Market St.
San Diego, CA 92101

Dear Chief Kolender,

I am one of the volunteers who gave much time and energy last spring to monitor schools in the integration program. I realize that not all monitors were able to follow through on their assignments, especially after they discovered how much time it would take. I also realize how busy you and the Task Force Members were and are. Whether or not we all completed our jobs, I think that we monitors deserve more feedback and some small thanks for our willingness to serve.

I did not receive a copy of the report sent to Judge Welsh. This report should have been made available to the monitors since we helped write it. I was never told whether I should continue my job this fall even though I contacted both my school and my Task Force Supervisor.

I have read that the monitors might be paid for their work this fall. That is fine, but I think that someone still owes the former or continuing volunteer monitors some information and thanks.

Sincerely,

Deborah D. Park
