My dear Rebecca,

My tears for you keep welling up. When I heard the news of Earl, I was stunned. I suppose I thought he could just keep going on his spirits alone. It is such a personal thing how one will miss their love, but with all you have done over these last years - I know you will. I actually hope you have a feeling of relief, for both of you. As you know, I feel like I am in your shoes and I take this very personally. My heart and tears are for you, and please know that at any time, even in the middle of the night, if you need a shoulder to cry on, cry on mine - as I will cry with you. Life will get in place as it is made to do. The sorrow for the loss of Earl to the world, and to you, is great and I wish you healing and grand memories of the good times. Never forget though your abilities and compassion that you have given like a flood. My heart is with you Rebecca, and I will bring the clan tomorrow to show our respect. Much love to you,

Linda
