STATE ELECTIONS CODE

Sec. 11501 "Candidate" means any person who seeks nomination or election to a federal, state, county, judicial, or district office, or to a municipal office in a general law or chartered city, at any election or primary conducted within this state. "Candidate" also includes persons seeking election to a county central committee at the direct primary election.

Sec. 11560 Except as provided in Section 11561, each candidate and the treasurer of each committee shall make and file a campaign statement following the election or primary, as the case may be. A campaign statement filed with respect to a primary election shall be verified. The verification shall state that the candidate or treasurer has used all reasonable diligence in its preparation, and that it is true and is as full and explicit as he is able to make it.

Sec. 11561 A candidate or nominee for a municipal office or for election to the governing body of a district need not file a campaign statement if the lawful receipts and expenses of his campaign do not exceed two hundred dollars ($200). However, elected candidates or candidates nominated at a primary election shall file a written declaration to that effect if their campaign receipts and expenses do not exceed two hundred dollars ($200).

Sec. 11562 If a candidate at any election other than a primary seeks to avoid the responsibility of any illegal payment made by any other person in his behalf, he shall set out that illegal payment in the campaign statement and disclaim responsibility for it.

Sec. 11563 All candidates for either nomination or election and the treasurer of each committee shall file their campaign statements within 35 days after the election or primary, or not later than the day preceding the day upon which the candidate takes office, whichever first occurs.

Sec. 11565 No officer shall issue any certificate of nomination or election to any person until his campaign statement or the written declaration required in Section 11561 has been filed. No other statement of expenses shall be required. The officer with whom campaign statements or written declarations must be filed pursuant to Sections 11564, 11568, or 11569 shall send to the candidate, not more than three days after the election, the necessary forms for submitting his campaign statement.

Sec. 11590 Neither a candidate nor committee nor any body of superior authority to which the committee is subject, whether before, during or after an election or primary, may directly or indirectly pay, expend or contribute any money or other valuable thing, or promise so to do, except for lawful expenses.

See State Elections Code Sections between 11500 and 11631 inclusive.
