FORM 730

Statement of Economic Interests

For Designated Employees

Important Notice to Filers: The Political Reform Act is intended to prevent conflicts of interests by requiring public officials such as yourself to disclose financial interests which could foreseeably cause conflicts. In addition, as a public official, you may be required to disqualify yourself from making, participating in, or attempting to influence any governmental decision which will affect your financial interests, including those you are required to report on this Statement. The Fair Political Practices Commission's Guide to the Political Reform Act: California's Conflict of Interest Law for Public Officials explains what a conflict of interest is, and when disqualification is required by law. Failure to file your Statement before the filing deadline may result in penalties including but not limited to late fines.

* If you have checked this box, you may have to report your pro rata share of the gross income to, or the interests in real property and investments held by, the business entity on Schedules C, D or H.

Note: You must report any salary, commission, distribution or other income paid to you or your spouse by the business entity on Schedule D, whether or not you have a 10% ownership interest.

Schedule A — Investments

Your "immediate family" means yourself, your spouse, and your dependent children.

An "investment" is any financial interest in a business entity. The most common kinds of investments are corporate stocks and bonds, interests in partnerships, and sole proprietorships. You do not have to report investments in bank accounts, insurance policies, government bonds, interests in diversified mutual funds registered with the S.E.C. under the Investment Act of 1940, or interests in common trust funds created pursuant to Section 1564 of the Financial Code. If you are a beneficiary or maker of a trust, consult the detailed Instruction Manual or your agency's legal counsel or filing officer.

A business entity is in the jurisdiction if it or a related business entity:

—Is located or resides in the jurisdiction.
—Does business in the jurisdiction.
—Plans to do business in the jurisdiction.
—Has done business in the jurisdiction within the previous two years.
—Has an interest in real property in the jurisdiction.

Name Leon L. Williams

Schedule B — Interests in Real Property

You must report interests in the types of real property described in your disclosure category, located in your agency's jurisdiction, in which you and your immediate family had an aggregate interest of more than $1,000 during the reporting period. You do not have to report your principal place of residence.

STREET ADDRESS OR PRECISE LOCATION OF PROPERTY	NATURE OF INTEREST, E.G., EQUITY, OPTION	ACQUIRED / DISPOSED	DATE	VALUE	IF RENTAL PROPERTY, OWNERSHIP INTEREST IS: *

		[ ] ACQUIRED [ ] DISPOSED		[ ] $1,001 – $10,000 [ ] $10,001 – $100,000 [ ] Over $100,000	[ ] Less than 10% [ ] 10% or greater

* If you have checked this box, you may have to report your pro rata share of the total gross rental income (if $250 or more) on Schedule D, and your pro rata share of the gross rental paid by any individual tenant (if $10,000 or more) on Schedule H.

Schedule B — Interests in Real Property

"Interests in real property" include ownership interests, options to purchase, and leasehold interests if ten years or more remain on the lease. The value of a leasehold interest is the total amount of rent owed by you during the reporting period. An interest in real property is not reportable if it is your principal place of residence. However, if your principal place of residence also is a place of business, e.g., a family farm or retail business, you are required to disclose that portion of the property which is used in connection with your business activities.

An interest in real property is in the jurisdiction of a local agency if it is located in or within two miles of the jurisdiction of the agency, or if it is located in or within two miles of any land owned or used by the agency. An interest in real property is located within the jurisdiction of a state agency if it is located anywhere within the State of California.

Schedule D — Income (Other than Loans and Gifts)

The most common forms of income are salary, wages, income from a business entity and proceeds from sales, including the sale of a house or car. Income includes your community property share of your spouse's income.

You do not have to report salary and reimbursement for expenses or per diem received from a state, local or federal government agency; dividends, interest or other returns on a security registered with the S.E.C.; payments under an insurance policy; interest on bank accounts or bonds; income of dependent children; alimony or child support payments; redemption of mutual funds; bequests or inheritances; or any payments received under a defined benefit pension plan qualified under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a). If you or your spouse is a beneficiary or maker of a trust, consult the detailed Instruction Manual or your agency's legal counsel or filing officer.

If you and your immediate family own an aggregate interest of 10% or more in a business entity, or in rental property, you must report your pro rata share of the total gross income to the business entity, or the total gross rentals from the rental property, on this schedule, if the gross income or gross rentals are received from a source of income covered by your disclosure category. In computing your pro rata share, include your community property interest in your spouse's share of the total gross income or total gross rentals.

You must report any salary, commission, distribution or other payment to you or your spouse from any business entity of the type covered by your disclosure category, whether or not you have a 10% ownership interest in the entity.

Income to a business entity should be reported on Schedule H.

Loans and gifts are also income, and should be reported on Schedules E and F.

Name Leon L. Williams

Schedule E — Loans

You must report loans aggregating $250 or more which were received or were outstanding during the reporting period from any source of income covered by your disclosure category located in, or doing business in, your agency's jurisdiction. Loans from family members do not have to be reported. (Report loans to business entities on Schedule H.)

Dear Mr. Williams:

Thank you for providing an explanation for the late filing of your Statement of Economic Interests. Your request for a waiver of your fine is granted and the late filing has been removed from the record. If you require assistance in the future, please contact our Technical Assistance and Analysis Division at (916) 322-5662.

Very truly yours,

John Keplinger
