GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN
GOVERNOR

SHIRLEY CHILTON
SECRETARY
STATE AND CONSUMER SERVICES AGENCY

TALMADGE JONES
DIRECTOR
DEPARTMENT OF FAIR EMPLOYMENT AND HOUSING

JULY 1989

GOVERNOR DEUKMEJIAN SALUTES

THIRTY YEARS OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

"On the occasion of this 30th anniversary of California's fair employment and housing laws, it is important for each of us to recall that our State has long been a land of freedom and opportunity -- a beacon of hope that has drawn millions of people from every part of the world to our shores.

"California was built by immigrants, and it continues to be a magnet for some of the most talented, ambitious, hard-working people from throughout the world. Our strong equal opportunity laws underscore a deep commitment to keep the California welcome mat firmly in place.

"Our State has traditionally cherished its diversity. When you consider how racial, religious, and ethnic differences often have divided societies in other parts of the world, Californians can be very proud that we offer a more positive, hopeful example.

"Our State stands as a shining example of how people of tremendous cultural differences can live together. Ours is a State where personal dreams and individual dignity count for something. In fact, they count for just about everything.

"We all share a responsibility to make sure that the opportunities which we found in this State are extended to all Californians -- regardless of the color of their skin, their age, their heritage, their disability, or their religion.

"Thank you for your three decades of support in making equal opportunity in California a reality for all our people."

George Deukmejian
Governor

July 1, 1989

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Directory listing human relations commissions and related organizations resulted from the cooperative efforts, comments and suggestions of staff in the Department of Fair Employment and Housing and the organizations. We especially appreciate the organizing, editing and typing provided by Bettye O. Williams, Special Assistant to the Deputy Director, and Sandy Draper, Word Processing Coordinator.

INTRODUCTION

The Directory listing human relations commissions and related organizations was developed to assist the Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) maintain liaison with these vital entities, as mandated by Government Code Section 12933.

The organizations are grouped according to the geographical location of the twelve DFEH District Offices and within the two (North and South) regional boundaries. Within the Districts, the organizations are listed in alphabetical order by the city in which they are located.

The Directory includes forty-one (41) organizations. It will be updated periodically. Any changes or corrections must be sent to the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, Enforcement Division, 2014 T Street, Suite 210, Sacramento, CA 95814.
