FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAMPAIGN CHAIRMEN, COMMITTEE
ANNOUNCED FOR LEON WILLIAMS

SAN DIEGO, March 22 -- A broad coalition of support has been announced for City Councilman Leon Williams in his bid for the fourth Supervisorial District seat on the County Board of Supervisors.

Malin Burnham, Paul Peterson, Dorothy Smith and Lionel Van Deerlin are campaign co-chairmen for Williams' campaign, announced George Scott, chairman.

Scott, a retired San Diego businessman who remains active in civic, cultural and philanthropic affairs, and a long-time friend of Williams, was named campaign chairman earlier this month.

ADD 1 -- Campaign Chairmen, Committee Announced ...

Tawfiq Khoury, Harold Starkey and Bill Rick will serve as finance chairmen, Scott said.

He also announced members of the campaign Executive Committee including Martha Contreras, Frank L. Hope, Jr., Dr. Ralph Ocampo, Charles Reid and the Rev. George Walker Smith.

Kathy Alegria is volunteer chairman.

"These chairmen and committee members, along with a long list of others who have voiced their support, represent a broad range of interests and political persuasion," said Scott.

"The common denominator is they all believe San Diego will benefit by having Leon Williams as a county supervisor.

"He has earned the respect of San Diegans during his 13 years of dedicated service on the city council. We believe this experience combined with Leon's leadership qualities, make him the best candidate."

Williams said if elected he will focus his efforts on regional economic development; improvements in the justice system; work-training for welfare recipients and consolidation of city and county services.
