"HIP HOP" DANCE COMPETITION

The Greater San Diego Inner-City Games invites you to participate in the first ever Hip Hop dance competition. We encourage you to duplicate the enclosed video and audio tapes and distribute them to any of your young people interested in forming a team to participate in the competition. Each organization will be responsible for judging their own competition.

One team and one alternate team should be selected by each organization, i.e. Boys and Girls Clubs, Housing Authority, Parks and Recreation, etc. All participants will receive Inner-City Games T-shirts and be invited to the September 17th giant Inner-City Games Celebration at the Sports Arena. All team winners will perform their routines with Pepper Von and Shanna Missett at the Sports Arena in front of 15,000 spectators including Arnold Schwarzenegger and Junior Seau.

GET YOUR TEAMS READY NOW!

RULES:

1. Open to boys and girls ages 8-17.
2. Must perform Inner-City Games routine (approximately 1 1/2 minutes).
3. No props allowed, i.e. hats, etc.
4. All participants must wear T-shirts and shorts that adhere to school dress codes.
5. Teams must consist of 5 dancers and must be co-ed.
6. All participants must complete the Inner-City Games application.

JUDGING CRITERIA:

Competition should be judged on the following criteria:

1. Sychronization - how well the team stays together.
2. Stage presence, personality and showmanship:
   * eye contact and connection with the audience
   * energy level
   * enthusiasm
   * smiles
   * self-confidence
