Dear Mr. Brown —

It is hard to express in words how much your talk meant to all of us last Sunday evening. It was wonderful for you to take time from your family to come and share your experiences with us.

Before too long we hope it will be possible for you to come again and bring some others with you to share experiences — as you suggested.

If the young people received only one-tenth the inspiration I did from your thoughts — the meeting was more than worthwhile.

It is really a lift to meet you and to know you and to realize that there are grand people around like you to inspire and lead our young people.

Sincerely,

Helen Halyburton
