[MS-0436.002.020.012]

SDSU's Brown elected Holiday Bowl president

San Diegan Hal Brown has been elected president of the 1997 Plymouth Holiday Bowl. Brown, who lives in Del Cerro, is the Associate Dean and Director of Community Economic Development for San Diego State's school of business. He has been a member of the Holiday Bowl Board of Directors since 1990, and has served on committees including Long Range Planning and Civic Relations.

Brown

"I'm very proud to have the opportunity to play an integral role in an event that is very important to San Diego," Brown said. "The challenge given to me by the Holiday Bowl Board of Directors is an exciting endeavor that I am honored to accept."

Brown also is a member of the San Diego Convention and Visitors Bureau Board of Directors, was named by the San Diego Business Journal as one of the top 100 business and community leaders in San Diego in 1992, and was selected by the San Diego Museum of Art as one of the top 100 African-American Role Models in 1994.

Brown succeeds 1996 president Nikki Clay, who ascended to Chairman of the Board for the Holiday Bowl.