Norman T. Foster

N. T. Foster, 50, Dies In Alpine; Rosary Monday

ALPINE—Norman T. Foster, 50, who was to have managed the Lakeside All Pony Show today, died in his home at 445 Arnold Way Friday morning, after a heart attack.

Mr. Foster and his wife, Hazel, owned the Nor-Bob Trophy Co. at 445 Arnold Way. He managed the Viejas Days Horse Show in early August and was to have directed the Pine Valley Trail Riders All Western Fall Show next month, Mrs. Foster said. He was a motion picture projectionist for 32 years and worked at the Mission Theater in San Diego at the time of death.

Born In L.A.

Mr. Foster, who was born in Los Angeles, lived in the county 39 years. He attended school in Coronado, where his mother, Mrs. Anna E. McGavin still lives.

Survivors include his widow, Hazel, five children, Steven, 15, and Kathy Ann, 6, at home, Norman Jr. of San Diego, Richard of Imperial Beach and Dennis, in the Army; two brothers, Gordon of Imperial Beach and Leonard of Huntington Beach, and three sisters, including Mrs. Margaret Jeffers of Jamul and Mrs. Rita Pennington of Chula Vista.

Mr. Foster recently had been elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the Alpine Chamber of Commerce. He was president of the Alpine Union School Parent-Teacher Assn. for the 1962-63 term.

To Alpine In 1956

He had managed horse shows since moving to Alpine in 1956.

Mr. Foster was active in Boy Scouting, and was a member of Local 297 of International Association of Theater Stage Employees.

Rosary will be recited at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Paris Mortuary Chapel. Requiem Mass will be said at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Queen of Angels Catholic Church, Al-
