2 From CORE To Begin Jail Terms Monday

Dr. Charles Collins

Valley News Sunday 30, 1964

SAN DIEGO — Two members of the Congress of Racial Equality, among 11 given five - day jail sentences Friday by Judge Vincent A. Whelan for contempt of court, will report to county jail Monday.

The CORE members were found guilty of wilful contempt for their picketing, stand-ins and sit-ins at the Bank of America's main San Diego branch after a preliminary injunction had been issued restricting demonstrations to not more than four at a bank entrance.

Two of those sentenced are Dr. and Mrs. Charles Collins of 4404 Sheldon Drive, La Mesa. Both were given four days suspensions, and Collins was given permission to serve his wife's sentence.

Whelan imposed sentences of five days in county jail on three of the defendants, with three days suspended on condition that they
