

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY

Winter Break Travel Study The Ethics of Development Guatemala

Work and study in a local community

Dr. Mark Wheeler, Philosophy

January 5-14, 2010

Estimated Price (without airfare): $1,800

Earn 3 semester units while working with the local community!

- General Studies 450 (graduate credit also available)
- 2 mandatory orientation meetings prior to the trip.
- Hands-on service learning, research and lectures on-site.

The $1,800 fee includes:

- Tuition for 3 Units (graduate and undergraduate credit available)
- Lectures and Educational Excursions
- Sites: Guatemala City, Antigua, San Martín Jilotepeque
- Lodging and Meals

Space is limited to 20 students – sign up today!

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT: Maren Castañeda, CAL International Programs Office, Arts and Letters Building, Rm 473 Tel: 619-594-0931, mcastane@mail.sdsu.edu