[ms-0398.006.006.012]

Gave to my Kathy Shank

from

CHARLES G. ABDELNOUR
CITY CLERK

MEMO

April 30, 1982

William:

Here's somebody who'll maybe a good campaign worker for you!

Chuck

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY 1897

LESLIE LANGROCK

725 Coronado Court
San Diego, CA 92109
(714) 488-5118

OBJECTIVE

To utilize my counseling experience and communication skills. Position should provide an opportunity for professional growth and advancement.

EXPERIENCE

Counseling:

Facilitator of individual, family and group sessions for Residential, Drop-in, Aftercare and Outreach counseling programs. Conducted home visits, crisis intervention and long term therapy for adolescents and their families. Emphasis with juvenile delinquency prevention, family therapy and child abuse.

Judicial Representation: (Three years)

Provided written and oral assessments and evaluations to the San Diego County Probation Department and Superior Courts, Juvenile Division.

Supervision:

Responsible for the training and supervision of graduate counseling interns. Delegator of client counseling assignments and facilitator of caseload reviews.

Program Development and Administration:

Created and implemented an aftercare counseling component to strengthen follow-up counseling for ex-residents and drop-in clients.

Consultant for the San Diego Youth Involvement Project - Youth Advisory Board. Designed training programs and workshops for the Board. Conducted orientations for new employees and assisted in staff training and workshops. Developed and orgainized fund-raising projects in order to send board members to National Youth Conference in Seattle, WA, 1981.

EMPLOYMENT

San Diego Youth Involvement Project; Head Counselor. 2/78-2/82

Mission Bay High School: San Diego, CA - Regional Occupation Aide. 2/79-6/79

EDUCATION

B.S., San Diego State University, August 1978
Major: Child Development Minor: Psychology.
Emphasis: Family Studies
Presently attending classes towards Masters Degree at San Diego State University

REFERENCES

Furnished upon request