The San Diego Public Library has notified us that according to their records you have failed to return books charged to your library card. This is a violation of Section 63.06 of the San Diego Municipal Code. Section 63.06 is a misdemeanor and a criminal complaint could be issued as a result of your failure to cooperate with the Library.

Please settle this account with the Library by returning the material loaned to you and by paying a fine of five cents a day for each book. If the material has been lost, there is a charge of the cost of the book plus the fines.

Failure to return the material, or pay for its loss, within four weeks may prompt the City of San Diego to take either criminal or civil action to recover this material.

For information please contact:

The San Diego Public Library
820 E Street
San Diego, California 92101
Telephone No. 236-5826 (after 10 a.m.)

Your cooperation in settling your library account immediately is appreciated and ensures that all of us as citizens may have full use of our library.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN W. WITT, City Attorney
