RECEIVED
MAR 27 1990
Archives

[MS-0398.026.014.012]

POSSIBLE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS: KEYNOTE OR WORKSHOPS

1. Stephen Jay Gould. Noted Harvard lecturer, Professor of Biology, emphasis on human rights.

2. Thomas Kochman. Professor of Communications at University of Illinois. Author of widely known study of Black culture and communications.

3. Harry Edwards. Professor of Sociology, University of California Berkeley. World authority on Blacks and sports. Currently researching Blacks in education.

4. Benice Lindo. Consultant, Educator with University of California Los Angeles, Fullerton, Pepperdine. Authority on training and development, parenting.

5. Speaker from Naisbitt Foundation. Information about important forces (Megatrends) which will shape the future of society.

6. Speaker from Rand Corporation.

7. Mortimer Adler. Advocate of Paidia Program, emphasizing that all students should have a common-core education.

8. Carol Gilligan. Author of A Different Voice. Nationally known speaker on women's issues.

9. Harry Kitano. Sociologist, well known for works on Asian assimulation and experiences.

10. Gordon Cawelti. Editor of ASCD. Advocate of Core Curriculum, a world-view and interdependency based program.

11. Santiago Rodriguez. Affirmative Action Officer, Stanford University. Dynamic speaker.

12. Morris Massey. Professor of Communications, University of Colorado. Well known authority on values formation.

13. Alvin Toffler. Author of Futureshock and The Third Wave, books which describe important changes affecting the world.

14. Diane Ravitch. Professor at Columbia University. Author of widely-acclaimed book, Schools We Deserve.

15. State Assemblywoman Maxine Waters (Los Angeles). Member of State Assembly. Strong interest in education and minority affairs.

16. Patsy Mink. Former Congresswoman from Hawaii.

17. Sally Ride. First woman astronaut.

18. Dorothy Grayson. Consultant, Title IX, Los Angeles County Schools.

Andrew Young Mayor - Atlanta
Shirley McCune (future trends)
Bob Suzuki Cal St. La
Rudy Acuna
James Banks.
James Lawson (Bob Ard)
Benjamin Hooks (Morris)
Taylor Branch (Bob Ard)
Dr. Benjamin Salk

Lenore Bennett (Ebony)
Morrie Turner (Business)
Edgar Epps (U. Chicago)
Tom Bradley

PP:BT
ja
10/21/85