Dear Grandma,

I'm sorry I didn't write to you sooner, but I was kind of mixed up. I thought that since I already told you thank you for the 10 dollars that I didn't have to write and tell you again. Well, mom asked me if I wrote to you and I said I didn't because I didn't think you had to after I already thanked you. She got all mad at me so now I am writing to you.

I just got my report card in school. I will tell you what I got:

P.E. - A Spanish - B+ Typing - A World Geography - B+
Art - A English - A Algebra - A

I improved a lot since my last report card. In Physical Education, we are doing gymnastics. I am not very good in gymnastics but I am beginning to like them more and more now. We jump on the trampoline, the mini-tramp, balance beam, the horse and the high-low bars. I can't do any of them very well. I like the balance beam and I like jumping on the trampoline. In art, we have been doing wood block printing, photographing, and now we are starting on shading with charcoal. In English we are going to study mythology. We are also going to read "To Kill a Mocking Bird." In typing, we all know how to type now and what we are really doing now is learning to be secretaries. It is good practice, but I don't think I'll ever be a professional secretary. In world geography, we are studying crime and pollution. We have had a lot of guest speakers and next week an officer Whitehead is going to be with us each day except for Wednesday. He always comes to our school and has come ever since I was in the school. He took us to juvenile hall and it is just a terrible place. The kids are just kids, and even if they are rough, they can be treated a little more decently than they are.

The jail was pretty bad, too. Algebra is bad and I don't know how I got an A in it. I'm not very good at it. In Spanish I have to write a report about the religion or arts and crafts of the Aztecs or Incas or Mayas or some Indian tribe like that. It has to be 10 pages long, too, and I hope I can do it. Well, that about adds up what I have been doing. Guitar lessons are coming along and ~~and~~ Becky is teaching me how to play the flute. Thanks for the 10 dollars again.

Love,
Ann
