Dear Pat and Becket,

This is a late happy anniversary card. I apologize for not sending something on the right time again. I was remembering to do something before October 3 and then it was already October 10 and I realized that it just slipped my mind. But I at least remembered it. So I'm glad you have succeeded in two years of successful(?) marriage, and I hope that it lasts a lifetime for you. Well, it's been a big hassle moving and all. We've been here for three days now. I think mom and dad will like it here better than they thought. It's real pretty here. Tilden Park surrounds this neighborhood. The yards go way back and there are hills covered with trees, many eucalyptus trees so I don't know what mom's "crummy view" ideas came from. I'd rather look at this than San Francisco city and the bay. It really is out of the way and not really like living in "the city of Berkeley." I'll be going up to Redwood Valley within the next two weeks. Hopefully Willie will be able to be off his leash and get to run around in the country. I know he'll love it up there.

and so will I. I was just thinking of Washington D.C. today and how I wished I was living there. Well, I'll just have to miss it I guess. I'd like to live in both places I guess. How's Tricky Dick (the prick) I hope he gets dumped, but I don't know if it's possible. You guys know more about all the Watergate stuff than us, probably. Well, I'll end. Sorry I didn't send something sooner. HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!!!

(SAY hi to everybody in S. House)

love, Annie
