Dear Annie:

If you are interested in working with UMCYM if you come to Washington, or even if you don't but would like to work on a youth project somewhere around the country or in California, you should write (and tell them what a wonderful person you are):

Larry Ekin
Legislative Affairs Project
100 Maryland Avenue N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002

Scott Jones
Youth Service Fund
P.O. Box 871
Nashville, Tenn. 37202

Larry Jacobs
UMCYM
601 West Riverview
Dayton, Ohio 45406

I know Larry, and Dennis knows Scott Jones. I don't know who Larry Jacobs is.

Most projects you would be interested in pay subsistence wages, enough for room, board, and a little extra. You could also write to the U.S. Missions Projects, Board of Missions, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, N.Y. I think the person to write to would be John Jordan, but am not sure. The Board of Missions has some interesting projects going on here in America, one of them here in Washington.

American University has a program where you work at the school and get to take 6 credits of course work a semester. free.

You probably could get a job at the Board, but it probably wouldn't be too exciting.

Well, these are just a few suggestions. Dad can give you some ideas. You could probably work on an AFSC project in Mexico since you have good Spanish. Or a Methodist project, if they have any.

When do you find out if you're admitted to San Jose State? That might be a great place to go since there is a wide variety of people and you aren't too far from home. (And you can sneak off to San Francisco every now and then.)

Love, Bechy
