

Concha del Juncos

Susanna Sprague Head, class of 1930,
I married Clarence M. Head, U. S. N. A.
Annapolis, Md. in 1932.
Clarence Jr. was born 1934. He is a Chairman of Engineers, Tech Dept.
Environment Resorts at Univ. of Central Fla.

Peter S. Head born 1936. He is now at Capt. for T. U. A. His home is in Bermuda, but has a second home in Boston, as his daughter goes to Tufts University, and a son goes to Univ. in Fla.

Both sons graduated from Gas Tech.

I became a widow in 1963. Since I had nothing much to occupy my time I taught
First grade for 11 years.

Don't do much since then.

From an original watercolor by Caroline Scott Harrison, first President General of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. Courtesy of the President Benjamin Harrison Home, Indianapolis, Indiana. Reissued 1990 to commemorate the NSDAR Centennial.

This card represents a contribution to the NSDAR "Ties That Bind" project for the Headquarters building renovation.

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, 1776 D Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006-5392, is a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization.

© 1990 National Society Daughters of the American Revolution.