Retired elementary teacher.

Semi-retired Religious Science minister.

After 50 years of full-time work, retirement is insanity. Bee seeks healing.

What saves her is "Professional Grandmawing" the two infant sons of her only child, son Terry.

"The joys of Grandmawing have been grossly underrated", spouts Bee who had about given up hope.

Bee considers herself very lucky to be living within a mile of her family.

"Isn't it funny, and wonderful, how life evolves?" says Bee.

If you want me to,

I'll "fix it".
