Graduated 1944 - Social Science
Married 1944 - James B. Bosley
4 Children - Ellen Cook, Ph.D - college prof.
John Bosley, BA - manager (Computers)
Sally Marshall, BA - teacher
Daig Bosley (Down Syndrome)

Worked for 20 years as a Church secretary.
Always a homemaker and busy volunteer
Present activities include Church handbell Choir and other Church activities - also activities involving retarded citizens.

My husband is a retired Air Force Reservist, and retired high school teacher. He is also active in Church groups and ARC (Assn for Retarded Citizens)

Our children all live in the San Diego area, so we also spend time with them and our 8 grandchildren. Our son with Down Syndrome lives at home with us.

Dear Pat,

Please use as little or as much of this as you wish.

Sincerely,
Nancy Bosley

Some pre-50's alumni might remember my father, Frank M. Waterpaugh, who taught economics and accounting at SDSU (SDSC) from 1935-1956. He died in 1956 before he retired.
