

135
Mr. John N. Williams
62 Annandale
Nashville, TN 37215

Helen Wetzell Wallace,
SDSU Alumni,
4762 49th St.,
San Diego, CA 92115.

Dear Mrs. Wallace;

May 12, 1994.

In answer to your request for information about me, be advised I was in the class of 1935, for one and a half years only. I was a member of Epsilon Eta fraternity. I married Ruth Rausch, who graduated in 1936, and we had two daughters, both took short courses at SDSU. Judy, the younger, graduated from Colorado Women's Collage after studying in France and the University of Geneve, Switzerland.

My work time was as follows:

1930-1940 Investment Banking, Roger K. Williams & co. as Secretary-Treasurer.
1933-1934 Standard Stations, Inc. as station attendant.
1940-1941. Ryan School of Aeronautics, as assistant to Mr. Prudden.
1942-1946 U.S. Naval Reserve, Discharged a Chief Yeoman.
1946 Founded, General Fertilizer & Supply Co. President.
1954 Founded, General Agriculture Supply Co, Director, Vice President.
1958 Committee Member, Farm Home Administration for San Diego & Imperial Counties.
1958 Director, California Fertilizer Association, President, 1962.
1958 Director, Glen Abbey Memorial Association, President, 1976-
1959 Director, New Plaza Hotel Co. President 1963-
1960 Director, San Diego County Industries, President 1963.
1963 Founded, President, General Hydrodynamics Inc.
1964 Chula Vista Rotary Club, President 1969.
1968 Director, Vista Hill Psychiatric Foundation,
1970 Director, San Diego County Water Authority.
1970 Chairman, Vista Hill Hospital Committee.
1971 Founded, Director, Balboa Bank, Chairman 1975.
1976 S E C Registered Investment Advisor.
1977 Alternate Member, Colorado River Board of California.
1978 Director, First National Bank of San Diego County.
1981 Licensed Salesperson, California Department of Real Estate.
1982 S E C Full Registration/General Securities Representative.
1991 Retired, moved to Nashville, TN.

P.S. I believe I took piano lessons from your aunt..

Jack
John N. Williams,
62 Annandale Rd.,
Nashville, TN 37215.
Phone 615 371 0538.