First Grand Sire Archon, 1908-1909
Grand Sire Archon Emeritus

Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity was founded on May 15, 1904, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. It was conceived by Henry M. Minton, M.D., and organized by him and five professionals- Algernon B. Jackson, M.D.; Edwin C. Howard, M.D.; Richard J. Warrick, D.D.S.; Eugene T. Hinson, M.D.; and Robert J. Abele, M.D. Each man was outstanding in his profession but sensed a void in their lives, a cultural and aesthetic void, created by the permeating pattern of exclusion that was a basic, firm characteristic of life in the United States. It filled a social need among black professionals. The organization emphasized genuineness, the essence of fraternity. Each member was regarded as the equal of all other members, officers were chosen by drawing names from a hat. Members were called Archons and their wives, Archousai. The President was called Sire Archon, the secretary, Grammateus, the treasurer, Thesauristes, the reporter, Grapter. There was also a Rhetoricos who was an orator, and Agogos, a leading or directing Archon. Although initially a social organization, there has always been a desire for social action. "The Great Boulé Debate" was a discussion of how the fraternity would become involved in social action. This major change in the fraternity was brought to the forefront in 1964 at the 27th Grand Boulé in New York City. Archon Percy Julian gave his famous "Faultless Prophets" speech in which he stated that "the scholar must become the voice and conscience of the people." Archon W.E.B. DuBois had previously addressed the Grand Boulé in 1948 stating that it should take in more members stating that the "Talented Tenth" should become the "Guiding Hundredth".

Boulé members include Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Vernon Jordan, Louis W. Sullivan, Ronald Brown, Benjamin Hooks, Tom Bradley, Kenneth I. Chenault, Douglas Wilder, A. Leon Higgenbotham, Earl Graves, John H. Johnson, Ralph Bunche, and Whitney Young.

Alpha Pi Boulé- The Early Years

Alpha Pi Boulé was chartered May 8, 1965 in San Diego, California. Charter Officers were:

Sirearchon- President: J. Kimbrough DDS

Grammateus- Secretary: John Johnson

Thesaristis- Treasurer: George Walker Smith

Leading Archon- Agogos: Edward Maddox

Lecturing Archon- Rhetoricus: Harold Howland

Other original members were Edward Singleton, Henry Lennette, Earl Gilliam and Donald Carey.

The history of these early years was discussed at an Alpha Pi Boulé meeting, September 21, 2000 by Archons John Johnson and George Walker Smith. Archons Leon Kelley and William Jones hosted the meeting.

The original idea of forming a Subordinate Boulé was most likely due to the efforts of Jack Kimbrough who had contact with Boulé members in Los Angeles, California. Kelly Williams, Executive Director of Golden State Insurance Company, came to San Diego on a number of occasions to instruct the group in how to present themselves and how to take in new members. Ten members were needed to start a group. They ultimately enlisted Dr. J. Earnest Wilkins, Jr. who was stationed in Del Mar to round out the group.

At the time there were about 850 members nation wide. One person could "black ball" the inclusion of anyone into the group. Occasionally, 20-25 names would be circulated for admission to other Boulés. Only about nine would be approved.

The group was primarily a social one. Each Archon hosted a meeting in his home where he would lecture the group on a topic that was not in his field of expertise! The dress for meetings and all gatherings was tuxedo. Dr. Kimbrough, who led the first sit-in in San Diego, became very upset with John Johnson when he brought in outside experts for presentations. He would not speak to him whenever they played golf together. John Johnson was Deputy City Manager at the time and George Walker Smith was a young minister who was also on the San Diego City School Board. Johnson stated that J. Ernest Wilkins of Chicago served as a "gatekeeper" at that time. Chicago and New York City Subordinate Boulé's were the leading groups that set the tone for the country. John feels that being a member broadened his horizons. They became leaders and mentors. He closed by challenging all Boulé members to use their economic power to advance the self-sufficiency of underrepresented San Diegans.
