CLASS POEM

Just a few words before it's too late
From those who are about to graduate:
It has been on our mind
About the school we leave behind.
We are happy, with a touch of regret;
As time goes on, we'll never forget.

Memorial, Memorial, school of our dreams
As we leave it, how strange everything seems.
We try to show our appreciation to every one
But it is a huge task that can never be done.
So we'll stand in silent tribute
To the ones gathered here.

The principal, the teachers, the fathers,
the mothers, the friends we hold dear.
In our hearts always, until time immemorial
Will live our dear Junior High School, Memorial.

Lillian Woolard

HIGH NINE CLASS SONG

We know it's time to go,
We surely hope you know
That we've enjoyed our school days here.
No other time in our lives could duplicate
these years.
We want to thank each one,
Who's made our school days fun,
And tell you how successful you've been.
Years from now, Memorial, we'll remember then,
The friends we've made,
The things we've learned,
The work we've done,
The grades we've earned,
The homework that was often spurned,
These things are all a part
Of something near our hearts,
The joys we've had in Junior High School
So now to you, Memorial, we bid a fond adieu.

Words by Jeanne Freyer

Tune: "Personality"

Linoleum cover design by Miriam Smith.
