Thank you for asking me to speak Friday. I know that you were thinking on my behalf and I truly appreciate your thoughtfulness.

Here are photocopies of some of the pictures we dug up. I don't know if you have them.

If Rebecca wants time off, call me and I'll take you to DIALYSIS (Sp?) or we'll have lunch.

Chartered in April, 1911, by the state of Indiana, Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity was founded in January of that year by 13 negro students at the University of Indianapolis. Drake Football Star John Bright and Ollie Matson are both members.

The most recent national fraternity to come to the Mesa, Delta Epsilon colony was chartered in May, 1951. In September of that year the group petitioned the Inter-fraternity Council for membership and was granted probationary status.

Kappa Alpha Psi president this year was Julius Campbell, while Connie Broome was vice president and Homer Broome, secretary-treasurer. Activities of the SDSC chapter during the year included a national scholarship drive, during which they granted a scholarship to a high school student; a Dad's Day Dinner, and a Sweetheart dance.

The Drama Department of San Diego State College this year presented an outstanding group of plays, ranging from a farcial comedy to an historically important melodrama.

Comedy presentations included Jules Romains' "Dr. Knock" and Lennox Robinson's "The Far Off Hills," which were regarded as outstanding productions on the college level. Both of these productions were staged during the Fall semester.

The Aztec Theatre Guild then followed the humorous vein in the Spring semester with the presentation of George S. Kaufman and Katherine Dayton's "First Lady," a comedy which dealt with Washington politics and society.

Perhaps the most powerful play presented this year was "Darkness at Noon," Sidney Kingsley's adaptation of Arthur Koestler's powerful novel, which brought to light the Russian purge of 1937. This play is regarded as one of the finest dramatic productions ever staged on the State College campus.

A most successful year was culminated by the production of Tennessee Williams' famous play, "The Glass Menagerie," a highly successful presentation of a difficult-to-stage drama.
