WOMAN CAFE OWNER ROBBED AND STRANGLERED TO DEATH

Around Town News

Ex-Light House Delivery Boy Passes Bar Exam

EARL B. GILLIAM

It has been released by the State Bar Committee of Bar Examiners that Earl B. Gilliam of 2908 Imperial Avenue, this city, was among the 482 persons which included 12 from San Diego to pass the 1957 Bar examination.

The examiners will certify their admission in ceremonies before California Supreme Court in San Francisco on December 18 and in Los Angeles on January 7, 1958.

The Light House is extremely proud of Earl because he delivered the Light House papers when he was quite a young boy, while attending Elementary School, therefore we feel that we are partly responsible for Earl's success.

We now have three Negro lawyers in San Diego, of which we can boast with pride. They are Robert A. Ward, Alpha L. Montgomery and Earl B. Gilliam.

A Strong Man is a man who can stand up for his rights, and not hit back.—Rev. Luther King.

Mrs. Ann Porter Found Dead in Bed

Homicide detectives Thursday opened an investigation into the death of a Logan Heights cafe owner who was found dead Tuesday.

Her death at first was believed natural. Today it was determined by medical tests that she was strangled to death.

The body of Mrs. Anna Porter, 60, of 3015 Franklin Ave., was found by a friend, Mr. George King of 3217 G Street, when he came to her house at 8 a.m. to take her to her cafe, the Jolly Inn at 140 N. 30th St.

Investigators learned that she had been taken home from the cafe at 11:30 p.m. Monday by two of her employees after she complained of chest pains.

An autopsy Tuesday failed to reveal the cause of death. Minor scratches about her neck were the only apparent injuries.

Coroner A. E. Gallagher said Thursday that further pathological tests revealed that Miss Porter died of strangulation, and that she suffered a concussion over the right ear, and had a bruise over the right eye.

Detective Lt. Mort Greer said a search is under way for a .25 caliber pistol and coin purse which is missing from a cloth sack which Mrs. Porter always carried.

Mrs. Porter is survived by her husband in Arkansas and one sister here, Mrs. Laura Clark, and Mrs. Pearl Allen of Milwaukee, Wisc., Mildred Johnson of Ft. Smith, Ark., and two brothers from Kansas City, Mo., Coleman and Jackson Ware.

Kasper Appeal Rejected Again

Rejected for a second time is the appeal of segregationist John Kasper from his contempt of court conviction for his anti-integration activities in Clinton, Tenn., last year. He already has begun to serve his one-year jail term.

3,500 Hear Mrs. Daisy Bates Speak

AWAITS CUE — Val Washington, Mrs. Daisy Bates and Mrs. Tera Hall Pittman are shown prior to Mrs. Bates' speech in Olympic Auditorium, Los Angeles, last Sunday.

More than 3,500 people gathered at the Olympic Auditorium in Los Angeles last Sunday, Dec. 1, to hear Mrs. Daisy Bates, publisher and president of the Arkansas State National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, speak on the integration crises created by the actions of Gov. Orval Faubus, who placed State Troops around the all white Central High School of Little Rock to prevent nine Negro children from attending that school.

Mrs. Bates spoke furiously in parts, when said that she had been asked is the nine Negro children going to resign from the all white school, one by one. She shouted to the top of her voice, and said, "No, no, no. This will never happen," because if they did, their previous fight will have been in vain, and their freedom was too precious in this age and time.

She told of how she and the nine Negro children avoided being bombed one morning, by going to school in a different direction from what they had been going each morning. She said a bomb was planted for them, but that Divine Guidance directed them in a different direction.

Mrs. Bates told of how her life is constantly being threatened by telephone calls, shouts over the phone to her, and how the mob was going to kill her for integrating the all white Central High School with those nine Negro children. She said that her phone is being guarded by Secret Service men and the three guards who are on duty at her home 24 hours around the clock.

As she unfolded the many dangerous threats on their lives, the more than 3000 people in the Auditorium were noiseless, and not even a pen fall could be heard throughout the 10,500 seating capacity of Olympic Auditorium.

Among those who shared the platform were the Honorable Senator, Richard Richards, from the State of Arkansas, Rabbi Morton Cohn, who brought greetings from the Jewish people of Los Angeles, and complimented the N.A.A.C.P. for their (Continued on Page 7)

Sammy Davis, Sr. Arrested In Gambling Raid

LOS ANGELES — The father of Sammy Davis, Jr., faced a jury trial today following his arrest on suspicion of gambling.

Sam Davis, Sr., 56, was arrested with three other men, Luther J. Jackson, 61, Daniel Neal, 54, and John Henry Ferguson, 81, in a downtown hotel room.

Police said they found about $300 in a poker pot when they raided the room.

Davis denied he was gambling. Municipal Judge Evelle J. Young set Dec. 30 as date for the trial. The others pleaded guilty to gambling charges and paid $10 fines.

May Bring Shirt Later

ST. HELIER, Jersey — An irate citizen strode into the local income tax office, banged a loaf of bread on the counter and piled his coat jacket on top of it.

Above the jacket, he placed a tax demand note addressed to him.

To the startled clerk he declared: "There's the bread out of my mouth and the coat off my back — now you've got the lot of it."

No Progress Without Struggle

"If there is no struggle, there is no progress. Those who profess to favor freedom, and yet depreciate agitation, are men who want crops without ploughing up the ground. . . . Power concedes nothing without a demand. It never did and never will."

—Frederick Douglass

The Light House Stand:

The Light House stands for complete integration of Negroes into every phase of American life through the Democratic processes.

We favor:

1. FEPC on local, state and national levels
2. Decent housing for all Americans.
3. Representation in Government.
4. Adequate old age pensions and social security.
5. Collective bargaining rights for all workmen.
6. Development and encouragement of Negro business.

We oppose:

1. Jim Crow in all forms.

South' Employers Use Racism To Block Unions

Southern employers are attempting to maintain the low-wage, open-shop South, by pitting white against Negro, while labor's officialdom slumbers in massive silence.

Benjamin D. Segal in the Nov. 11 New Leader reports how "racism stymies unions in the South." He gives the example of the Bay Springs, Miss. Northern Electric Products Corporation (Neco) where two days prior to an NLRB election, the owners, Ed and Eam Russell, injected racism. The union lost 291 to 86, although this past summer, a majority of Neco workers signed cards saying they were interested in forming an IUE local.

ANTI-NEGRO RANTING

Prior to the balloting, Ed Russell called the workers into the plant lobby where he shouted that the union was "nigger loving" and its president, James Carey, was a "nigger lover." Russell brandished the evidence: a copy of the June 4 Jackson (Miss.) Daily News, with a huge four-column photo showing Carey dancing with a young Negro woman. Ed Russell also sent three letters to each worker and made speeches, linking the IUE with activities on behalf of the Negro struggle for equality.

In Jackson, Miss., a similar racist attempt by the management of the Vickers plant proved ineffectual when a majority voted for the IUE anyway. But in Bay Springs and at the Raleigh, N.C., Westinghouse plant the IUE feels that racism was the fatal factor. At Westinghouse, the plant manager told white workers that Negroes would get their jobs if the union won.

Inside a New Albany, Miss., furniture plant, a company foreman posted pictures of Negroes at a union convention. Along side was a crudely lettered poster: "Do you want niggers representing you? Then vote 'No' today!" The Upholsterers International Union, AFL-CIO, attributed its defeat partly to White Citizens council activities.

Segal points to a pattern — these are not isolated cases. "Charles Gillman, AFL-CIO director in the Alabama-Georgia-Florida area, reports that White Citizens Councils try to get union members to serve on their executive boards and then attempt to sell them on the idea that union money is being spent on race integration . . . Gillman said, adding: 'It's getting so that in some places the white man won't talk to the Negro and the Negro won't talk to the white man, though they are on the same job.'"

In some instances, racism is causing defections from the unions. Because of a convention mandate calling for the abolition of segregation in its organization, the American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, lost the white Atlanta local with 1,500 members. White Chattanooga teachers are also organizing on an independent basis to maintain segregation.

Little Willie Sims Wears Diamond In His Teeth

Little Willie Sims, of 501 5th Avenue, wears a diamond in his teeth. Willie Sims at one time was the talk of the town, especially among the ladies. Little Sims is getting old now, and he is not little any more, but the diamond still lights his way.

Third Conviction In Mutilation Case

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. — A 45-year-old former industrial worker yesterday became the third Ku Klux Klansman convicted of mayhem and sentenced to a maximum of 20 years for mutilating a Negro man.

Jesse W. Mabry was convicted and sentenced by a circuit court jury which deliberated 58 minutes.

His attorney filed notice of appeal and bond was set at $20,000.

Two others previously were convicted and given the maximum sentence in the castration of Judge Aaron, 34, a Negro handyman, who was kidnaped, beaten and mutilated by Klansmen Labor Day Night.

Three others remain to be tried.

Mrs. C. M. Holmes In Hospital For Observation

Mrs. Clifford May Holmes of 2510 "K" Street, entered the Paradise Valley Hospital in National City on Thursday afternoon for observation for an operation. She was told by her doctor that she had a slight touch of cancer and later he said she just had a growth on her womb.

Mrs. Holmes is the wife of Mr. Willie B. Holmes, and the mother of twins, and three other sisters and small brothers.

The Light House wishes for her a very speedy recovery.

We Are Climbing The Ladder Of Success

I was very proud last week, when I read in the Union-Tribune Daily Paper of Earl B. Gilliam passing the State Bar Examination. First, because he is of my race, and second, because he use to be one of my carriers. That was before I began mailing my paper to the subscribers. He use to ride a bicycle and deliver papers, and that makes me feel good that I had a hand in helping him to the lofty position to which he is climbing.

His father and I had a laugh the other day when he remarked to me that he and his wife had to struggle so hard to help him make something of himself. (Quote: Now his next thing is, to try to help him to keep his feet on the ground, and not to hold his head too high in the air and to always remember, it's not the height he climbed, but the depth from which you came) end of quote.

It may sound funny, but I learned there is a lot of logic in that, and I think Mr. Don Keller should be given a great amount of credit. Mr. Keller is not like some Department heads who spend a lot of time in telling us they don't believe in discrimination, and spend the rest of their time proving to their white friends they do believe in it by not hiring any colored in their department and always explaining.

It reminds me of an old Trainmaster on the Gulf Coast Line of the Missouri Pacific. He would tell us he did not want us to tell him why the train was late. He said to get here on time, then there is no explaining to do. When I see your time card come into my office marked on time, nuff said. It needs no explaining. So, I say, Earl, go ahead and make good. The Light House Staff is in your corner.

As I use to tell Mr. Roundtree, we need some colored attorneys here in San Diego. Now we have three and one in particular is another young attorney who is making good, Alpha Montgomery, whom, Earl, I think you should consult often. I think he will be glad to help you on your legal way.

2176 Irving - BE9-1845

Old St. Nick is just around the corner . . . in fact a bit too close for us, who never have time to do all the things we would like to do . . . Many holiday parties are being planned and we hope to have a few friends in some-time before the Season ends.

It was indeed an enjoyable evening at the Gerald Phillips when friends were invited in to meet their relatives, W. Dale and Vel Phillips, a husband and wife team of attorneys from Milwaukee, Wisc. Vel, who is councilwoman, is as pretty and feminine as a Dresden doll, and W. Dale, handsome, sociable and utterly charming. Both are ardent NAACPers, so naturally we got along fine . . . The Harold Burts, Hartwell Ragsdales, Marshall Lewises, Homer James, William H. Paynes, Bert Ritchey, Eloise Jones, Mae Banks and my Gloyd were there . . . Intelligent, witty and scintillating conversation in a relaxed, friendly atmosphere is always enjoyable to us . . . It was a very good party and everyone had fun . . . The ladies were beautifully dressed and looked lovely.

We missed hearing courageous Daisy Bates, NAACP leader of Little Rock, Arkansas State Conference, in Los Angeles Dec. 1. Our editor's wife covered the meeting and will report same in this issue. Ditto the Engineers party at Caspers and La Jolie Femmes cocktail dance. Speaking of dances . . . the NAACP special activities committee ran into conflicting dates and has postponed their December 20th party . . . Hear they are busy planning the January Installation Banquet . . . Don't miss the NAACP Branch meeting December 13th. Friday the 13th, no less. But come out anyway. It's election of 1958 officers.

So sorry that John Diaz is in Sharp Memorial Hospital . . . had an accident on his job the first day he returned from vacation.

We are off to Los Angeles this weekend for a gay round of partying . . . and can be reached at the Statler . . .

See you next week.

Everything is possible to the man who don't have to do it.

Mrs. Velma Ricks, 'Queen of Virgins'

Highest honors in the "March of Virgins" for November went to Mrs. Velma Ricks, shown in the above photograph being crowned "Queen of Virgins" by the Pastor, Rev. M. E. Bradley. Mrs. Ricks, a native San Diegan, is the very capable Youth Supervisor of the Phillips Temple C.M.E. Church. She competed with Mesdames, Rosa Davis, Byrdis Hamilton, Pearlene Johnson, Mary Nelson, Adele Pierre, Maude Ridley, Eleanor Riley, Delores Thompson and Katherine Turman. Each of the ladies participating in this activity can be assured that the fine spirit in which they responded is appreciated by the entire church membership.

The Ham Raffle sponsored by the Usher Board was indeed a great success, according to Mrs. Minnie Ward. She was the lucky winner of the 15-pound ham. It was Mrs. Ward's husband who so kindly contributed 100 hymns to the church some time ago, and for which we are truly grateful.

Friday, December 13, at 8:00 p.m. is a very important date on our calendar. It is the night scheduled for the Pearl Jett Circle's Annual Candle-Light Banquet, an event we all look forward to with much enthusiasm. It is our "Dress Up" affair. The public is cordially invited to enjoy this festive occasion with us.

Sunday, Dec. 8, at 3:00 o'clock, Phillips Temple will dedicate the new Hamond Organ in a very special service at which the Rev. George Washington, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church will be the speaker. We are inviting everyone to come out and share in this glorious event, as it is an important milestone in the history of our church. We shall

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Catherine Thomas and her workers would like to thank everyone for the very pretty flowers and telegrams from as far away as New York City, San Francisco, everyone in San Diego and La Jolla, Mrs. Young for taking pictures of the opening of Fashionette Beauty Salon No. 2 after she returned from the Daisy Bates speech in Los Angeles on Monday.

We also wish to thank Mrs. Mattie Powell of La Jolla for being our first patron. And our very good friends of Berkeley and Los Angeles who remembered us also.

- Correction -

In last week's issue of the Light House, it was stated that Mr. Richard Davis and his bride, Miss Delores Lavergne, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, were married by Rev. C. Wayne Love. Instead they were married in Yuma, Ariz.

It was mistaken by a Light House photographer, who took the pictures of the wedding party that was set up with a bride and groom, the best man, maid of honor, flower girl and a little ring bearer. As Rev. Love was the only minister at the wedding reception, it was no doubt in the mind of the photographer that he was the minister that united the couple in wedlock. but this was not the case. This type of set-up was arranged in order to let the people back in Baton Rouge see how this young couple looked in their beautiful and exquisite wedding togs.

We have learned to never take anything for granted, no matter how real it may seem. We are sorry this error occurred, but we hope it did not inconvenience anyone. You may see the couple's wedding picture in the Light House show window.

When People Sleep in Church it may be the Minister who needs wakening up.

We do not Approve of Integration and Segregation at the same time.

The football team is way ahead of the local military teams in this area. The navy team at Miramar, which is managed by Chief Jesse James, who plays as well as he coaches.

James, a known athlete and an old friend of mine, is doing his stuff this season and is about the best on the team and I understand that he works very hard with the boys, trying to make this team the best. I know we of Miramar work very hard and would like to get in all of the sack time we can, but don't you guys think we should go out to some of our team's games and give them a few cheers? I noticed in the Miramar Jet Journal that all of you guys want to do is visit TJ — that is T-town. You know what I mean, don't you? Well, you can look in the plan of the day and it will let you know when and where the next game will be, so why don't we go out and see if those guys are as good as they say.

Tears fell from some of the guys' eyes at Miramar this past weekend when they learned that they had to leave Miramar and San Diego and to go where? Those crying guys went to El Centro for a three week training cruise. Those who were the most pitiful were Jones, SD1, Joe Walker, SD1, and Horton JSD3. However fellas, I feel sorry for you, but you know I will be here when you get back and lots of luck to you.

I promised you folks that I would let you see our menu we had for Thanksgiving. Well here goes — chilled fruits, cocktail salad and fruit bar, roast tom turkey, giblet gravy, sage dressing, cranberry sauce, baked ham, raisin sauce, candied sweet potatoes, garden green peas, pumpkin pie, whipped cream, ice cream, nuts, candy mints, coffee, tea and milk. I think that's enough for one meal, don't you?

We all say we don't have a decent place to go. Well, I can see why — everytime you get a nice place to go, you go out to it and try to tear the place up. The Johnny Walker Real Estate Broker, Logan Heights' newest business enterprise, announces their formal opening Thursday, Dec. 12, at 3710 Ocean View Blvd.

will tell you some of it. You go out there and start drink and raising the devil. Well, what happens then? Someone threw a bottle last Friday night and hit the lady in the head and broke her glasses and she had to have medical treatment. When the police came nobody knew the guy that threw the bottle. Now that's part of the reason you don't have a decent place to go. Look at this way, would you like for someone to throw a bottle and hit your wife? I will answer this for you. No! Now she will have to take what little money she did make and buy her glasses. Then I hear so many of you saying you don't have a decent place to go. How right you are and from the rate we are going, we won't have any place to go but to jail, I could tell you a lot of things that go on, but why should I? You know better than I do. Why don't we go out some time and just keep our big mouths closed and the bottles on the tables. The next time I see something like that I am going to get some names and turn them over the police in any place.

The firm will be manned by Jutson Warren and Ray Frazier, licensed real estate salesmen, both of whom have had years of business experience.

There being a definite indication of greater expansion for the present and future growth of San Diego, there is also a current need for the diligent service proposed by the representatives of the Johnny Walker Real Estate firm.

Mesdames Helen J. Warren and Louise Frazier, Worthy Matron of Ione Chapter OES, and Illustrious Commandress of Isis Temple of the Shrine, respectively, will assist in the office.

YOUR FRIDAY NEWS FROM THE RAMBLE

The Rambler comes to you again with the news of the week. However there isn't much to talk about this week. But let's take a look at the night birds — I see Mr. G.P. has stopped parking his Olds over on Franklin St. I wonder if he got put out?

And the new 1958 Ford is no more a beauty carrier. It looks like the lady got wise to Mr. ??.

I was strolling down Taylor St. last Friday night and guess who I saw? None other than Mr. R.S.J. and Mrs. I. J. holding hands. They knew that Mr. J. was at work. But to upset their plans, Mr. J. wasn't at work at all and then the race was on. Mr. J. left his calling card — I guess you know what I mean.

And that Mr. D.L.S., the playboy of San Diego — well it looks like some one has got wise to him. He doesn't play any more. Why? Well, I think Mr. D.L.S. was making his regular stops when he entered a house over on 19 St. and ran into another play boy. Only this play boy could punch, too. Anyway, Mr. D.L.S. left with a red lip and it wasn't lipstick.

Again I am warning you, Mr. A.B. You better leave Mrs. F. alone. I heard that Mr. F. has bought him a 38 and is going out to the police range taking target practice and is doing fine the last I heard.

I notice the black Olds called the black beauty seems to be in the hospital. It looks like the owner met a telephone pole in the middle of the street and the pole wouldn't move over, so the pole tore off one fender. Better luck next time, Mr. B.

The alley on Logan is a very dangerous place now. I was passing by one night last week and a guy stepped out from behind a parked car and said, "Oh, I am sorry Mr. I thought you were

Alabama Negroes to Oppose Tuskegee Bill

In a recent meeting of the vabama the group went on record opposing a constitutional amendment-registration leaders of Alabama recently enacted by the State Legislature which would pave the way for the abolition of Macon County (Tuskegee) where the international famous Tuskegee Institute is located. If ratified by the electors of the State Macon County would be divided between the adjoining counties. The purpose of this amendment is to prevent mass voting of Negroes in the concentrated area, like in Macon County whose population is a ratio of 61.

The Olabama State Coordinating Association went on record opposing the amendment and to work diligently to get a large turn out on December 17th to oppose.

The Coordinating Association, of which W. C. Patton is President and Coordinator, met recently in Birmingham during which time more than five hundred delegates attended from all sections of Alabama and heard a featured speech by Congressman Charles C. Diggs, Jr., of Michigan. Those attending the meeting were so inspired and informed that each resolved to double their efforts to continue to increase the voting strength of Negroes throughout the State.

JUST PLAIN TALK

By Eva Young

Last Sunday morning, at 10 a.m., I motored to Los Angeles, arriving there at 12:30 p.m., at my brother's house at 1308 E. 48th Street, where I got out of the car and stretched for a second and moved over to let him get under the steering wheel, where he drove me to the Olympic Auditorium; to hear Mrs. Daisy Bates deliver her story on the Little Rock Central High School Crises.

That was one of the most heart-throbbing stories that I have ever witnessed; when she told of how she and the nine Negro children escaped from being bombed by going in a different direction one morning from the way they had always gone out each morning. She told of the many threatening telephone calls that she is still getting over her telephone. Although the F.B.I. is guarding her phone and her home is being guarded twenty four hours around the clock, she still receives threats that she is going to be killed for trying to integrate Negroes into the all white Central High School in Little Rock.

Mrs. Bates is a charming woman and treats each person as an individual. She wore a black suit and white blouse and a small black silk hat, with a black feather pointing upward from the back. Her accessories were black gloves and purse, with patent leather pumps and beautiful orchid pinned on her left shoulder.

I was grateful to Mrs. Arthur A. Green, wife of the former District Supervisor of Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Co. of San Diego, who greeted me at the side entrance of the Olympic Auditorium and directed me to the roof of the Auditorium where Mrs. Daisy Bates, Mrs. Tarea Hall Pittman and Mr. Val Washington were seated. As I introduced myself to these great people, and asked them to pose for a picture, they readily braced themselves and posed for me as they sat in the Buzzard Roof of the Olympic Auditorium.

Mrs. Bates is such a gracious person — it is a pleasure and a privilege to be near her with her warm and friendly personality.

The Rev. Maurice A. Dawkins, president of the Los Angeles branch N.A.A.C.P., told the hundreds who gathered last Sunday to hear Mrs. Bates to not drink any Budweiser beer. He said if you just had to drink beer, what ever you drink, let it be any other beer, except Budweiser beer. He said this company was unfair to his people in Los Angeles, because they would not hire any Negroes in their huge Los Angeles plant. He asked the audience to give them $3000 in their collection, because he said they had to give Mrs. Bates some money for her expenses, and some to carry on the fight in Little Rock, and they had to have some to fight their battle there in Los Angeles. People from various organizations, businesses, churches and personal donations was given to help in the cause. It seemed as though much more than that amount was raised, as it took four men and two Negro police to guard the money raised, and it took about thirty minutes to count the money and put it in those large bank sacks.

That was a rally that will long be remembered, and the Rev. Dawkins, president of the Los Angeles N.A.A.C.P., complimented the more than six Negro newspapers for carrying full page coverage (paid advertisement in their papers from the N.A.A.C.P. Budweiser Beer fight. The N.A.A.C.P. in other places pays for their newspaper publicity with monies they have in their treasury, but here in San Diego, it makes no difference how much money they have in their treasury, they think the paper should run everything free. They don't think about you having to pay for your labor and products. They think because it's for the N.A.A.C.P., it should be free. They have paid executives in their offices and they don't work for nothing. So I wonder why they think the newspaper should print everything free.

When the San Diego N.A.A.C.P. gives a big dance at the Mission Valley Country Club. I wonder if they tell the proprietor that it is for the N.A.A.C.P. and that he should let them have it free . . . well, the same thing applies to the newspapers, as they are businesses just like the big dance halls and banquet rooms. The Los Angeles N.A.A.C.P. paid hundreds of dollars to those Negro newspapers to print their story about the Budweiser Beer Company. Yet, if it was here in San Diego, the officials would expect for the Light House to run it free, and they pay the big price to some big white organization to let them dance about three and a half hours to the rhythm of four or five hundred dollars. Yet they expect for the Light House to run their publicity free and they give all their money to some white businesses.

We do not know whether the San Diego branch N.A.A.C.P. has made any investigation as to whether the local Budweiser Beer and other cold drink companies employ any Negro help in their hiring policy or not here in San Diego, because this company sells a tremendous amount of beer to the Negro market, and it's no more than right for them to place some Negroes on their payroll. The Budweiser Beer Company has a national payroll of $39,000,000 with only two Negroes employed in the Los Angeles area where there is a $30,000,000 plant.

If the Light House had just a little cooperation from the N.A.A.C.P., Urban League, Ministerial Alliance, Race Relation Society and other organizations, we could get some Negroes employment in San Diego. Instead these, organizations fight the Light House, instead of fighting these causes.

Greetings were sent to the meeting from the Mayor of Los Angeles and the Governor of California, and a donation was sent from the Police Department of Little Rock for the meeting last Sunday.

Women Ministers Alliance Blessed

The Undenominational Women Ministers Alliance was blessed in their Fourth Sunday Afternoon Services which were held at the Apostolic Church, 29 26th Street. The services were opened at 3 p.m. with the devotional services led by Rev. M. Williams. The presence of the Lord was felt in this Spirit-filled devotion.

The president, Elder B. M. Savage, bestowed the honor upon Rev. L. Hawkins to introduce the minister of the hour. She read in our hearing a beautiful essay concerning workers in the church and introduced to us the Rev. D. Williams, pastor of the Church of Higher Power.

She came before us singing "Here Am I Lord Send Me" and preaching a wonderful message from Is. 35-8 and St. John 14-6. Her subject was "The Way of the Redeemed." All enjoyed Rev. D. Williams as she preached to us out of God's Word.

Remarks from our Mother A. Lewis, followed by remarks from the pastor, Bishop Whittaker were very encouraging.

President Elder B. M. Savage acknowledged the presence of our visitors.
