

The City of San Diego Proclamation

Presented By
The Office Of
The Mayor

COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT & RESEARCH CENTER

WHEREAS, the dedication and grand opening for the Community Economic Development & Research Center is October 14, 1993; and

WHEREAS, the Community Economic Development & Research Center was conceived and brought to fruition by the Black Economic Development Task Force in San Diego; and

WHEREAS, the Community Economic Development & Research Center will develop strategies and vehicles to stimulate economic development in the underdeveloped communities in San Diego; and

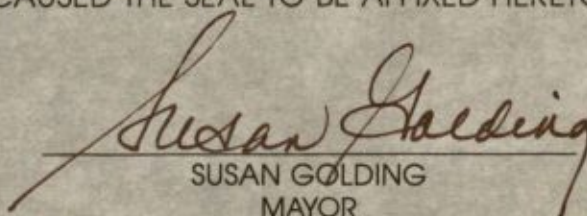

WHEREAS, the Community Economic Development & Research Center will provide business assistance and counseling to minority and women owned businesses in San Diego; and

WHEREAS, the Community Economic Development & Research Center's initial projects will include collecting data for an African American consumers survey and publishing an ethnic business directory; and

WHEREAS, the Community Economic Development & Research Center is committed to serving all ethnic communities and improving cross cultural relations;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, SUSAN GOLDING, the Thirty-second Mayor of the City of San Diego, do hereby proclaim October 14, 1993 to be "COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CENTER DAY" in San Diego.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND, THIS DAY, AND HAVE CAUSED THE SEAL TO BE AFFIXED HERETO:

SUSAN GOLDING
MAYOR

October 14, 1993

DATE

