SMITH URGES SUPPORT OF SCHOOL TAX BOOST

Vault Holds Microfilm Of Records

By SHERMAN S. SKEETE
Independent Staff Writer

A visit to the County Recorder's Office Broadway and Front Street, this week unfolded a story rarely noticed by the rank-and-file San Diegan who accepts efficiency as common place and prosaic.

Heading this department is County Recorder Al Gray, who has served the county over a 30-year period and who, now 54, lives quietly with his family composed of his wife and two daughters at 1064 Skylark Dr.

He told of the foresight in protecting recordings in a security vault at Santee which is housed in reinforced concrete and held at a temperature of 70 deg. and 4 per cent humidity. This provision is said to be able to withstand an atomic attack.

AMONG HIS predictions for the ensuing year are an expected volume of 250,000 documents, including 9,000 marriages; revenue of $560,000, and overall operating cost of $200,000.

THE FUNCTION of ownership of all land in the county, and liens or encumbrances upon such land, are based upon the records of the Recorder's Office. He accepts for recordation or filing those documents, instruments, papers and notices required by state law to be recorded or filed. The recorder also records marriages, and has records of births and deaths prior to September 1957.

But equally impressive is the heritage handed down from the Spanish dons and the exquisite Latin flavor which has been interlarded into the story.

No period has contributed more to the colorful backdrop of the history of this state than the extravagant years of the dons whose pastoral interlude bridge the years between the vast land tenure system of the Catholic missions and the commercial, gold-seeking age of Westerners.

Balboa claimed the entire Pacific shore in 1513 for the Spanish King. Then in the panorama of years, roles were played by Cortez, who founded La Paz in Lower California; Francisco de Ulloa, who discovered that Lower California was a peninsula; Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, and others who.

TOOK HARD WORK

Radioman Taps Out Top Grade

"It was a golden opportunity. It took a lot of hard work but was really worth it, and I felt awfully good about it," says Navy Radioman second class Cain Garrett, as he describes his feelings about becoming a record-setting student.

Radioman Garrett not only completed Radioman Class "B" School at the U.S. Naval Training Center in San Diego in three-fourths the usual time but earned the envy and admiration of his shipmates with a final average of 96.935, the highest ever achieved since the school opened in 1962.

The honor student's advanced training program was accelerated when it was learned that he was accepted for the Navy Enlisted Scientific Education (NESEP) Program. Preparatory school for the program, which sends enlisted men to college for a degree and commission as ensign, starts at the Training Center on or about June 1. Garrett was halfway through the course and completed the school's remaining 19 weeks in only eight weeks.

Although his final examination was the same as for students who take all classes, Garrett missed only five out of 100 questions.

SENTENCE ON GRIFFIN SUSPENDED

Judge Earl K. Adams of the Municipal Criminal Arraignment Court this week decided that he would suspend sentence for one year on condition that Edward Griffin would not repeat a violation during that time.

Griffin, a resident of 5505 Las Alturas Terrace, earlier pleaded guilty to having willfully and unlawfully used force and violence upon the person of Ted Patrick, recently hailed "Man of the Year" in Logan Heights.

A warrant for Griffin's arrest was duly signed by Patrick in recognition of a breach of State of California Penal Code 242 in which he charged the defendant with assault and battery. On April 23, bail was set at $276.

According to Griffin, the charge was a result of an altercation occurring at 30th and Imperial Avenue in which monies allegedly paid by Mayoral Candidate Murray Goodrich were reputedly not brought to the attention or equitably distributed to campaign workers. On requesting an accounting from Patrick, words were exchanged which led to blows.

Stresses Need For Passage Proposition Appears on June Ballot

The Rev. George W. Smith of the Board of Education this week made another plea for adoption of proposition E on June 2. He said:

"My fellow Board members and I request your Yes vote on Proposition E on June 2. We have placed this measure on the ballot because we believe that you want us to continue to provide a good education for the boys and girls of San Diego. Proposition E must pass if we are to have a better school system than we have now."

"We have always been interested in good schools and good education for our children. We know that the future of San Diego and of the world depends upon our children and youth. They deserve and need the best kind of schooling we can provide for them."

"YOUR BOARD of Education needs your Yes vote on Proposition E in order to find and keep good teachers and to have the funds necessary to support a strong school program. I am certain that voters in Area E and voters all over the city will vote Yes on E because they know how valuable good schools are to our city."

"IN THIS complex modern world with all of its problems, our schools cannot stand still. They either improve or they go backwards. Our Yes vote on Proposition E on June 2 will be our approval for San Diego schools to go forward. We are proud of our schools and we want them to continue to be good. San Diego has an investment in its schools and its children which must be protected.

Two Negroes Pass Basic Police Course

Two members of the Logan Heights community were graduates of the San Diego Police Academy this week when a total of 45 cadets completed a prescribed 13-week course in basic training.

These are D. E. Johnson of 1150 S. Ozark, formerly of the Navy, and J. Davis of 4427 Boston, an ex-Marine.

Patrolman Dan L. Blackson of Chula Vista Police was honor man for 1964 with a score of 91.8 out of a possible 100 per cent.

San Diego had 32 recruit officers.

Among various speakers who participated in the commencement exercises were Police Chief W. S. Sharp of San Diego, Walter Hahn and Thomas Sefton.

Political Tempo on Upbeat

MOMENTS AFTER RECEIVING telegram from Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin who was, at the time, in Washington, cheers went up from this group headed by Assemblyman Jim Mills. The text read: "Wishing I could be with United Democratic Club tonight. Confident of big voter turnout at primary." "THERE IS NO GAINSAIING that Alan Cranston is the better man for U.S. Senator," declares Jimmy Roosevelt as he gesticulates in emphasis. "Cranston has been in California when others have been away and occupied with situations which now make them unfamiliar with our problems." MAN OF IMPRESSIVE STATURE

Demos Ready Welcome For Rep. Gus Hawkins

Congressman Augustus F. Hawkins (D-Calif.) will be the guest of the United Democratic Club during a day-long visit Saturday.

According to present plans, he will hold a press conference at 8:30 a.m. and will join admirers of Alan Cranston for luncheon at noon in the Greater Jackson Memorial Church, 38th and Ocean View.

There is a subtle, historic mantle over Rep. Augustus F. Hawkins of the 21st California District. In one way, he brushes it off as insignificant, routine; in another, he senses it as a necessary reach for what plainly amounts to political power.

What 70,507 voters (nearly all Negro and nearly all Democrats) did in Los Angeles on November 6 when they marked for Gus Hawkins was to give the U. S. House of Representatives its first Negro member west of the Mississippi in history.

Groups Seek Defeat of Initiative

In a bid for inter-racial harmony, two California cities have opened offices under the Committee for Home Protection with a prospect that San Diego will soon take the cue to be as progressive.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown in late March announced formation of a statewide committee of distinguished Californians to oppose passage of the realtor-sponsored initiative constitutional amendment which he said would "give legal sanction to bigotry."

The 27 members are leaders of the state's business, labor, religious and governmental communities.

"They have agreed," the Governor said, "to dedicate themselves between now and November to helping Californians understand that there is more at stake in the election than mere repeal of the Rumford Act."

Californians for Fair Housing, a campaign organization under auspices of the new committee, has opened headquarters at 583 Market St., San Francisco, and 417 South Hill St., Los Angeles. Chairmen of the respective steering committees are San Francisco attorney Gerald D. Marcus and Los Angeles attorney William Norris.

Organizations originating the proposed amendment were the California Real Estate Association and the California Apartment Owners' Association. Their campaign organization is the Committee for Home Protection, 117 West Ninth St., Los Angeles, and 420 Market St., San Francisco. L. H. Wilson and Robert Snell are co-chairmen.

Local members of the Governor's committee of 27 are Hamilton Marston and Mrs. Jonas Salk.

of 100 questions. Two of them were on an area that he had been required to skip.

Garrett applied for the officer program about a year ago and hadn't yet learned if he had been accepted when he started Radioman School last year. He was told he would receive official notification of his acceptance.

Upon completing prep school at the training center, the officer hopeful will attend the University of Colorado in Boulder, Colo. He will major in engineering.

Garrett, from Kilgore, Texas, completed Radioman Class "A" School at Norfolk, Va., and served aboard the destroyers USS Hopewell (DD-681) and USS Rupertus (DD-851). He resides in San Diego with his wife, Ivory, and son, Darryl, 4. He became 22 years of age on 11 May of this year.

RAMBLINGS Of a Scribe

By RUTH A. GREEN

LISTEN HERE, YOU ALL... This LBJ has us in a state of utter confusion. You know when we make up our mind about something, we have done so by sifting facts from fantasy. Therefore we don't change easily, and never without reevaluation and struggle.

Right now we are in the throes of a conscientious hassle over Lyndon Baines Johnson, because we want to believe what he is saying about civil rights. Our mind, however, based on facts, tells us that it can't be true!

We have known about the President for a long, long time, and he always has been considered a foe to the cause of freedom for the Negro in America. His civil rights record of the past is so poor that it makes Wallace of Alabama, Burnett of Mississippi, and Faubus of Arkansas look like integrationists.

MR. JOHNSON has always been known as a charmer, a sonorous quoter of the Bible and a peacemaker, and it has been said, by those who know him personally, that "Old LBJ can charm a diamond-back rattler into singing, 'Peace be Still,' if he wants to." So we think if he can charm a diamond-back rattler, he could use some charm on his Southern whites who are blocking the civil rights bill now pending in the Senate, and he would not have to make speeches in the South.

WHAT FURTHER amazes us, is the strong verbalism of this former killer of the dreams of Negroes, to become free and accepted citizens of this country, about "equal rights for all citizens, regardless of race, religion or the color of their skin." And what's more, he goes into the South, the heart of bigotry in America, and on Southern soil he talks to Southern racists about ridding themselves of the "hatreds, hostilities and bitterness of the past" . . . Something no president in unknowingly, left their imprint on our system of records. Today, modern equipment replaces the picturesque quill of colorful yesteryears.

MICROPHOTOGRAPHY is the method now used by the County Recorder to create a permanent record. The film used will last for hundreds of years. It meets all of the requirements of the United States Bureau of Standards for archival-type film.

SUPPLEMENTING the microfilm program is a modern full-scale punched card system for indexing the recorded documents.

Currently, the recorder is investigating the feasibility of employing a high-speed data processing electronic computer to effect further economies in the science of recording and of records management in county government.

Enquiry has revealed that the office of the County Recorder was established by an act of the legislature in 1850. At that time the duties of this official were plainly specified. Through the years, these duties have been enlarged and become more complex.

Day-to-day business transactions enhance the feeling of security each taxpayer often takes for granted, little realizing that his very act is contact with the touchstone to progress, and that the record he makes today becomes a part of San Diego's imperishable future.

FIRST SHOWS SET IN CONCOURSE

Disclosure will be made this afternoon of the first two shows to be produced in the new downtown $20 million Civic Concourse Exhibit Hall during a press conference set for 2 p.m. at the U. S. Grant Hotel.

Sponsors and producers of five-day and 10-day shows will present full details. Their early estimates predict an attendance of 250,000 persons for both shows, with advance exhibitor space bookings already running more than one-third of the total hall space.

Boys To Study Americanism

A small group of San Diego youths will gather June 19 to take a week's course in practical Americanism sponsored by the American Legion.

The announcement was made by Porter E. Peterson, chairman, Boy's State, 22nd District, American Legion.

REP. GUS HAWKINS

decades; but the man and the people around the man will tell you it was time well spent.

This emergence of Gus Hawkins as among the most powerful Negro political figures in the West is at once a beginning and ending. What has gone will influence what is to come.

"He'll be one of the outstanding members of Congress," says political ally William Byron Rumford, Berkeley Assemblyman and a Negro.

"Gus learned quite a bit in Sacramento, the hard way. He had the advantage of having his head knocked around. In Washington, he'll make out all right."

An old friend of the Hawkins family looks further back to the decisive point in the new Congressman's life — a point on which Hawkins had no influence.

Gus was only 10 and living with his real estate - auto salesman father in Shreveport. "But conditions there were intolerable for a Negro," says the old friend, Dr. Claude Hudson, now a Los Angeles dentist.

So the Hawkins family moved West. "But if Gus had remained there," adds the doctor, "he might now be the head janitor of the First National Bank."

It was a good move. The father went into the retail business in Los Angeles. Gus went both to Jefferson and UCLA, following by a couple of years at both schools another prominent Negro, Ralph Bunche.

There goes part of our $495,000,000 telephone payroll.

Which one do you use to pin the diaper?

Some things demand all the safety you can give them. Babies for one. Your savings for another. Savings money is a special kind of money. It needs protection and care. You take care of your savings now and they'll grow up and take care of you. So keep your savings where they'll get the maximum safety, and where they're immediately available when you want them—in the bank.

BANK OF AMERICA
NATIONAL TRUST AND SAVINGS ASSOCIATION • MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM • INSURANCE UNDERWRITER

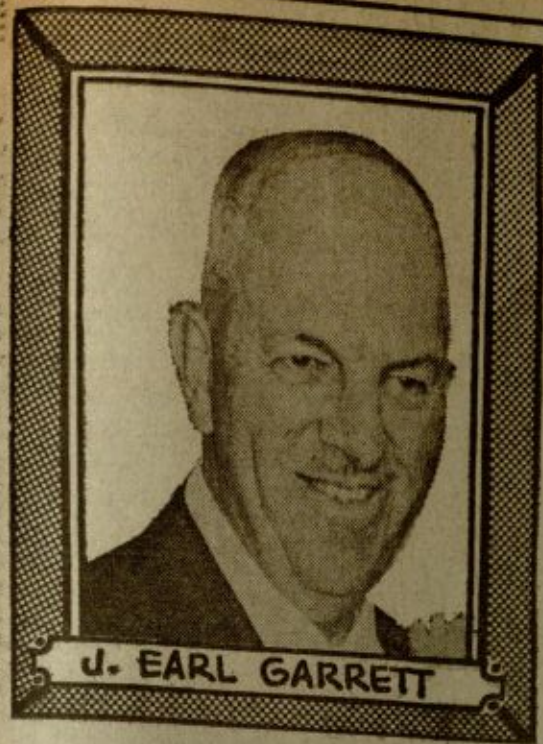

Matter of fact, the greatest part of our payroll is pumped right back into the economy of the state. Much of the money our employees earn rings up sales for thousands of businesses like department stores, service stations, grocery stores—businesses of all types and sizes (including the little salesman who cornered our linemen at lunchtime).

In this way, purchases by more than 74,000 telephone people help create jobs for employees of all these businesses. So, any way you look at it, our telephone payroll is a big boost to California's economy.
