National News In Brief

Negro organization leaders in Los Angeles are pooling their efforts and putting the push behind Negro real estate brokers in that city, to fight local white real estate brokers who are attempting to write off an amendment to the Rumford Fair Housing law. So far, the Los Angeles NAACP and CORE are strong behind Negro real estate brokers.

Congressman Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.) has been ordered to appear in New York State Supreme Court on next Thursday, December 12th, to show cause why he should not be held in contempt for failing to pay the $211,500 defamation judgment against him in a suit won by Mrs. Esther James, 67, a widow whom Powell described on TV as "bag woman" for the collection of graft from New York City police.

Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, stated to reporters after a forty-five minute meeting with President Lyndon B. Johnson that he has "great faith" in Johnson's civil rights attitude.

The Los Angeles Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People asked the City Council to support a move to place more non-Caucasians on the Tournament of Roses queen's float in a letter to the council sent out last Wednesday. The tournament parade takes place in Pasadena on New Year's Day. Fletcher W. Smith, president of the Los Angeles Branch of the NAACP, said that there should be girls of all races on the float and that non-Caucasians have never been selected to appear on the float, a fact which he described as "undemocratic and unfair."

No Day Off For The Smiths

IT WAS schoolday just as usual on Monday for the children of Rev. and Mrs. George Walker Smith. Hence, they had to forego the thrill of witnessing the historical swearing-in of their father as the first member of his race to sit upon the San Diego Board of Education.

Following the 3 p.m. induction ceremonies for newly elected Board of Education members Arnold O. Steele, Dr. Eugene French, and Rev. George Walker Smith, the regular meeting of the Board of Education took place at the Board of Education Center.

BECAUSE THIS was an interim election, the choosing of the board officers took precedence on the meeting agenda.

On Rev. George Smith's motion, Mrs. Marian F. Jessop was elected Board president; and on Dr. Eugene French's motion, Dr. Frank Lowe was elected vice-president. These two will serve until the first meeting in July at which time (by a new State amendment) a new election of Board officers will be held.

ON HAND TO witness the induction ceremonies of newly elected Board of Education members were Mrs. George W. Smith, Rev. Edgar Robinson, pastor of Messiah Lutheran Church; Rev. Morgan Tann, pastor of Temple A.M.E. Zion Church.

VIPS Attend Sunday Reception

THE TOP BRASS of San Diego society showed up at the plush Republic Avenue home of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Ford as the sun set on Sunday afternoon for a scintillating reception honoring Mayor Frank E. Curran, City Councilman Tom Hom, and Board of Education Member Reverend George Walker Smith.

The reception, hosted by Dr. and Mrs. John R. Ford, Dr. and Mrs. Vell R. Wyatt, and Mrs. Gloyd L. Green, marked the newly elected Mayor's first social appearance since his election to office.

Attending with their respective husbands were Mrs. Curran and Mrs. Smith.

ALSO ATTENDING the lovely reception were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nelson, Mrs. Daisy Dundee, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Linnette, Mr. and Mrs. William Barron, Judge Byron Lindsey, Dr. and Mrs. Matthew Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel

Hal Brown To Speak At Human Right Day

HAROLD BROWN, chairman of San Diego C.O.R.E. and Dr. John Stroessler of Astro-nautics will be the principal speakers at an observance of Human Rights Day to be held on Saturday, December 7, at 8 p.m., in the VFW Hall, 102 E. 16th Street, National City.

The theme of the program will be "Human Rights — A Search for Personal Freedoms." Programs on this theme are being sponsored by members of the Baha'i World Faith in more than one thousand American communities.

THE SPEAKERS will present their views on the meaning of personal freedoms, followed by an open discussion during which questions may be asked. An informal coffee hour will follow the formal program.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights was adopted by the United Nations on December 10th, 1948 — just 15 years ago. It states in its preamble that "recognition of the inherent dignity of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world." This is the basic principle of the Baha'i Faith and has been since its beginning over 100 years ago.

AS AN ORGANIZATION with accredited observers at the United Nations in the non-governmental section, and twice cited by the U.S. Committee for the U.N. for its efforts in furthering the principles of the United Nations, the Baha'is feel that everyone has a vital stake in Human Rights Day.

The Baha'i World Faith believes in the oneness of mankind and the fundamental oneness of religion.

LH Realty Board to Meet on Tuesday

THE LOGAN HEIGHTS Realty Board has invited a cross-section of community leadership representation to its bi-monthly Breakfast Meeting at the Castle Dining Room on Tuesday, December 10th.

At that time, John W. Reagan, board president, will submit a program for community action against the California Real Estate Association's attempt to amend fair housing legislation.

REAGAN has announced that the Logan Heights Board has become a member of the State and National Association of Real Estate Brokers, which is planning a $10,000 advertising campaign to inform all Californians of the destruc-

Curran Gives Recognition To Negroes at Induction

By Betty Reid

FRANK CURRAN, Mayor of San Diego, gave recognition to both Negroes of San Diego, collectively, and also to an individual who had firmly supported his recent campaign for election, during the period of his swearing-in ceremony in the City Council Chambers on Monday morning.

Included in his speech was the strong statement: "I shall request the City Council to implement a study on a Human Relations Commission."

LATER, after taking the chair, officially, as the new Mayor of the City of San Diego, Curran introduced Mrs. Sylura Barron, president of the John F. Kennedy Democratic Club and his Southeast campaign manager.

The Mayor paid devoted tribute to Mrs. Barron and then accepted from her a huge live floral gift. In presenting the beautiful plant to Mayor Frank Curran, Mrs. Barron reaffirmed her belief in Curran's dedication to good government for all people in her area, ending with, "You've done a good job in our Fifth District as former councilman. May God bless you and keep you through the next four years of office as Mayor!"

ALSO SWORN into office in the City Council chamber during the Monday morning ceremony were re-elected City Councilman Ivor De Kirby, and newly elected Tom Hom and Jack Walsh.

By unanimous balloting among the City Councilmen, Ivor De Kirby was chosen as Deputy Mayor to Curran. The term "vice mayor" will be discontinued by a future vote.

AMONG THE FAMILIES of newly sworn-in officials attending were Mrs. Frank Curran, wife of the new Mayor; Mrs. Anne Curran, mother of the Mayor; Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Curran, brother and sister-in-law of the Mayor, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Curran, also a brother and sister-in-law of the Mayor.

Also Mrs. Tom Hom, wife of the newly elected City Councilman from the Fifth District; the mother of Tom Hom, just arrived from San Francisco in time for the ceremony; and the Hom's five beautiful children. Another baby is expected in the spring.

JACK WALSH'S wife and children made a late arrival, missing the ceremony swearing him into office as a new City Councilman.

In addition to Mrs. Barron, citizens from Southeast San Diego in attendance in the City Council chamber for the Monday morning event included the Rev. James A. Covington, pastor of Phillips Temple C.M.E. Church; the Rev. Morgan W. Tann, pastor of Logan Temple A.M.E. Zion Church; Richard Amand, well known real estate broker; and others.

A Moral Obligation

Well known Logan Heights real estate broker, Richard Bland, opened his mail on Friday . . . and found therein a check, bearing his signature made out for the amount of $166.00, returned to him.

Not for the usual reason was this check returned. It was returned at Mr. Bland's request.

It had been made payable to the San Diego Real Estate Board.

Mr. Bland was one of two Negro real estate brokers . . . who had previously submitted membership application forms and joining fees to the Board.

The $166.00 represented the initial joining fee and one-quarter of a year's dues in the organization.

Perhaps many Negro real estate brokers might have considered it quite an honor to have been among the first members of their race . . . to be accepted into the hallowed ranks of San Diego Real Estate Board membership. Heretofore, no brown face has darkened the Board's doors. Most Negro brokers considered this a step forward . . . to even have been requested to submit the application forms and individual checks.

Not Richard Bland!

Bland sat down and thought this whole thing over carefully . . . and made up his mind, accordingly.

He remembered that, in actuality, the San Diego Real Estate Board has joined with its "mother" organization, The California Real Estate Board, to fight the Rumford Housing Law amendment. Thus, the local group becomes a part and parcel of a bunch of bigots.

If Bland had allowed his membership application and his check to remain in the hands of the San Diego Real Estate Board . . . he would have, possibly, become allied with the very men who are fighting the Fair Housing laws . . . and fighting his own local real estate group — The Logan Heights Realty Board.

Richard Bland is much too intelligent . . . and much too dedicated to the fight that the Logan Heights Realty Board is staging . . . for equality and fair practices in housing . . . to have any personal aim toward a bit of "prestige" garnered from association with the San Diego Real Estate Board . . . at this point.

In other words, Bland felt (in requesting the return of his check from the San Diego Real Estate Board) that if he had been accepted into membership in that group . . . his personal money would be utilized in furthering bias in housing . . . since that organization is a part of the California group fighting against fair housing.

We're proud of people like Richard Bland . . . and the Logan Heights Realty Board.

With each passing day, the Board is gaining the strength . . . and the respect of downtown banks and mortgage companies.

Richard Bland had a moral obligation to fulfill . . . by requesting the return of his membership check from the San Diego Real Estate Board.

The Logan Heights Realty Board is continuing to fulfill . . . its moral obligation to every Negro resident of San Diego.

We hope that, by the same token, we, as a race, will turn to members of the Logan Heights Realty Board . . . for assistance in obtaining either rental or ownership housing!

Democrat Support

The County Democratic Council, at its monthly meeting November 27, voted to take an active role in support of the Fair Housing Bill, now the target of a constitutional initiative petition. The bill, which became law this summer, makes it illegal to refuse to sell or rent housing when the refusal is based solely on race, creed or religion.

Representing Democratic clubs throughout the county, the C.D.C. and its member clubs represent thousands of local Democrats. Noting a current drive by local real estate boards to nullify the bill, CDC voted to send appeals to all members of the San Diego and National City-Chula Vista Realty Boards, asking their support for the bill. The vote also calls on San Diegans not to sign any petitions that seek to undo the bill.

"We felt that in honor of the ideals of our late President, John F. Kennedy," said Louis Katz, local CDC president, "we should take an active part in working for equal housing rights for all San Diegans regardless of their race, color or creed."

Action by the entire CDC was begun by the Golden Hills Democratic Club, and supported by all member clubs within CDC.

As I See It
By JAMES GILLIAM

ARE YOU WILLING to make a little sacrifice for your freedom and that of your children and their children? As set forth in previous articles of this series, the plan is a simple one and requires no great outlay of capital on the part of the poorest amongst us. It is so simple that it is amazing to the most naive mind.

THE PLAN IS to get Negroes to get up off their collective knees and share the little we have so that economic independence will come to us like a stroke of lightning. In other words, if eleven million Negroes will invest from twenty-five cents to two dollars a month for five years, we will have a grand total of eight hundred and ten million dollars to buy shares in the very companies which refuse to hire us.

Indeed, we can build plants to produce consumer goods so that our dollars will do double duty. We can buy where we are hired and from the plants we own. This is not boycott or hate.

IT IS A SIMPLE program of economic achievement which we can do from day to day without stress, strain or fuss and bother. A carton of cigarettes a month, a six pack carton of beer, a couple of packs of your favorite brand of cigarettes a month or just a single pack will get all of us on the road to solid economic power.

With a possible one hundred sixty-two million dollars a year to invest and build, a group such as we have can revolutionize the economic structure of the world and help call many tunes and create jobs for ourselves.

YOU DON'T HAVE to get mad at anybody and you don't have to hate them because you don't have a job. This is your chance for economic strength. The challenge is no great barrier if we want to get ahead.

Let me clear the atmosphere of one thing. I do not have any desire for personal gain in making this proposal. I would insist that those who administer the details should be persons who have some knowledge of investments and large financial dealings. I would want to divorce myself from the arrangements so that the fate which befalls many youthful enterprises which are dominated by their founders will be eliminated.

THIS IS A SITUATION where experience is a MUST and amateurs ought to take a back seat.

So, if there be those among us who know how to handle and invest money, let's get together and start the ball rolling.

IN THE NEXT few weeks, I shall contact friends across country with the proposal and ask them to give their support and know how in promoting the idea. For the first year, I shall request all persons serving to do so without fees or costs so as to establish a full program of confidence all the way down the line.

In other words, those who will be asked to serve will be persons who can afford to give some time and use their own means to make the idea a workable reality.

THERE WILL BE no pay-offs except and until each investor gets his full share of the amount he invests. If you put your money in, you will get your money back at the stipulated rates consonant with good business practices in an investment organization. Every legal precaution will be taken to safeguard reputation, money and investments. This is as it should be since every person wants to feel that he has confidence in those who handle his money.

In the very beginning, this is not a get rich-quick-scheme for charlatans and privateers. This is a people-to-people program of direct action by Negroes, for Negroes and for those who are like minded.

IF YOU WANT YOUR dollars to do double duty, serving

OPINIONS IN PASSING
By Daniel W. Brown, M.D.

The Death of President Kennedy — 100 years after the death of President Lincoln, history repeats itself.

THE DEATH OF President Kennedy was ironically similar in character.

The conduct and behavior of Lincoln and of Kennedy involved a tremendous display of courage in their efforts to change the conduct and behavior of our society.

Lincoln and human slavery, Kennedy and legalized (racial) segregation. The death of Lincoln and of Kennedy involved a basic question of personal safety in public.

The assassination of Lincoln and of Kennedy was an act by an American citizen against another American. Lincoln and Kennedy were the innocent victims.

The death of an innocent citizen in public by another citizen must be concluded as a useless death, a malicious version of justice and of personal safety.

THE CHARACTER of Lincoln and of Kennedy is not questioned. The death of each is a human tragedy which left America speechless; the only words heard were through the tears from many eyes, unbelievable but true.

The character of the assassin was one of distortions in education of human values and involved hate beyond the imagination of the world.

Letters To The Editor

RUTH'S ANSWER TO JIM'S ANSWER
Editor: You could call this the War of the Roses, I guess, since each protagonist in the Ruth-Jim battle has declared he can come out smelling like a rose — with enough dough invested in deodorants, that is.

Just a couple of clarifications: (1) Before writing my letter concerning Jim Gilliam, I phoned the Grossmont High School District and inquired if it was "Dr." or "Mr." Gilliam. I was informed it was "Dr." So much for my — to use Mr. Gilliam's own words — "degenerating Negroes."

(2) His P.S. "I wonder why Ruth refused to talk it over with me over a beer or coffee?"

Well, first of all, the word I received through a third party was that Jim wanted to take me to lunch. How did "lunch" get to be just "beer or coffee," hrm?

Secondly, how can I refuse something that was never asked? I was never contacted by Jim and invited to lunch. I was merely told he was going to. I'm still looking forward to it. (Since I've made you so mad, Jim, let's go Dutch, only fair, I think).

I have only one more Gilliamism to answer, and I quote: "She has a great understanding of what Negroes have to undergo but what has she done about it as an individual?"

Not very much, really. Just raised two sons to love their fellow man; despise bigotry; revile racists; hate hate.

Actually, Jim, if 180 million Americans could as honestly say the same thing there would be no problem at all, would there?

Love,

It's been a long time since we've heard of any worthwhile contributions made by any of our teenage social clubs, but recently, The Grads — a Senior Club at San Diego High — donated a large Thanksgiving meal to a needy family.

A few (!) of their (25) members are Charlie Brown, Candy Dimry, Vincent Noble, Maria Castile, Kenny Williams, Sandra Tizenor, David Gayden, Virginia McMurry, Charles Ward, Sharlet Gabriel, Eddie Griffin . . . Here's hoping they keep up the good work!
