BIGGEST AND BEST:

The Voice Set To Extend Its Coverage, Increase Size And Occupy New Offices

COMING ALMOST at the identical time of the anniversary of the change in ownership, is the announcement by VOICE Publisher, Mrs. Betty Reid, that the largest Negro weekly newspaper in this area of California will enlarge its coverage of local and national news, will increase the size of the present number of pages to include a 16-page magazine section titled "Tempo," and will move its offices into the building formerly occupied by Judge Earl B. Gilliam at 2335 Imperial Avenue.

Mrs. Reid assumed the publishing of THE VOICE during February of 1963. The first edition, under her direction, contained the dateline February 23th, 1963. Dr. Alfred H. Graham, now residing in Riverside, California, founded the newspaper approximately three years prior to that date.

WITHIN THE PAST year, THE VOICE has increased its circulation from 10,000 papers to 14,500. The paper has also increased its prestige.

THE VOICE was the first Negro organization to belong to the San Diego Chamber of Commerce.

IT HAS GAINED a listing in Standard Rate and Data—the "prayerbook" of the publishing and advertising industry.

More than six months ago, VOICE Advertising Manager, Wendell Reid, became the first Negro member of the San Diego Advertising and Sales Club. Last month, VOICE Publisher, Mrs. Betty Reid, became the first Negro member of the California Press Women.

THE NEWSPAPER is a member of the National Negro Publishers Association. Its national advertising representative is Amalgamated Publishers, Inc.

The decision to extend coverage, increase the size of the newspaper and to branch out into larger and better quarters was based upon the fact that the VOICE is answering a need within the San Diego community. Its acceptance has been widespread by both individual readers, organizations within the community, and advertisers and advertising agencies.

AN AGENCY in Chicago, Wade Advertising Agency, chose THE VOICE for an account. Sofstyle, in this edition. Agencies in New York and Los Angeles have increased their use of THE VOICE throughout the year just passed.

In announcing the step up, Mrs. Reid stated, "The Voice has a service to perform to this community. We are proud that it is the community that has supported us in our endeavor. At this time, we feel that we can show our gratitude to our readers and our advertisers by giving them a larger newspaper, with extended coverage, and by moving into the kind of offices that will give us the means of preparing a bigger and better newspaper for everyone in this area."

THE MOVE TO the former office suite of Judge Earl B. Gilliam will take place later during this month.

The magazine section of THE VOICE will appear beginning next month.

The plans to go into heavily populated Negro areas with increased circulation and news coverage will be put into effect within the next ten days.

AS PART OF ITS increase in size, today's edition of THE VOICE is twelve pages, instead of the former eight pages. Throughout the past year,

THE VOICE published special twelve standard page editions. Because of the increase in advertising lineage today's edition contains twelve pages. This step up is expected to continue.

IN THE MEANTIME, bigger and better editorial coverage will tie in with the increase in size of the VOICE.

Distinguished writers such as James Gilliam (As I See It), Harold Brown (Speaking Out), Dr. Daniel W. Brown (Opinions in Passing), Ernest Mandeville (Point of View), Ruth Nuttall (How 'Bout That), Cheri Daniel (Teen Time), William Granger (And All That Jazz), Lt. Homer Johnson (Report to The People), Freddie Hayes (Sports Corner), and Betty Reid (Conversation Piece) will continue to by-line provocative feature and column pieces.

A PROMINENT woman will highlight the social pages of THE VOICE with weekly news and a column.

Original plans had been initiated to move into new office space as a part of its Negro History Week celebration by THE VOICE. However, it was not possible to effect the change during these past few days in time for the two events to be marked at the same time.

Big Stars To Appear For 'Van'

"AN AMERICAN GALA," the fund raising dinner being held next Saturday for Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin, will be a star-studded event.

The dinner, to be held in the Crown Room of the Hotel Del Coronado, will be hosted by movie and television star Barry Sullivan.

THE ENTERTAINMENT portion of the program will feature other well known Hollywood stars. There will be, Arthur O'Connell, Robert Vaughn, Marty Engalls, and a bright new singer, LuLu Porter.

According to dinner finance chairman Harry B. Sugarman, the guest speaker for the event will be House Majority Leader Carl Albert, (Demo) Oklahoma. Sugarman said, "Majority Leader Albert will offer the only political speech of the evening. It is our desire to present a program of entertainment and light-hearted fun," he said.

TICKETS FOR the "American Gala" are currently enjoying brisk sales, and may be obtained by contacting San Diego Democratic Headquarters.

AS SOON AS the change is made to the new location, THE VOICE will welcome visitors and tours made by school classes as part of their Negro History Week activities.

'64 Men Racing To Lead

WITH LESS THAN two weeks left to go before The VOICE's Man-of-the-Year contest officially comes to a close at midnight, Sunday, February 24th, a heated campaign is being waged among fans and friends to see that their choice wins the title.

The coupon, which appears on the bottom of this page, is to be used for voting for your choice as to the man in this community who comes closest to carrying the title of "Man-of-the-Year" in this contest. He can be the man most clearly associated with achievement or attainment, in your mind.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT of the winning name will be made in the Thursday, February 27th, edition of this newspaper.

The man who wins the title, by the most votes cast for him, will be honored soon after the closing of the contest with a luncheon.

So far, many well known men are ahead in the race.

WAY OUT FRONT are Judge Earl B. Gilliam, Hal Brown, chairman of CORE; A. R. Reed, aeronautics employee; Dr. J. J. Kimbrough, Rev. George W. Smith, Lt. Loudin Beam, bank executive; John W. Johnson, executive director of the San Diego Branch of the Urban League; Hartwell Ragsdale, president of the San Diego Branch NAACP; Ted Patrick, president of the Chollas Democratic Club; and George Stevens.

YMCA Membership Drive Is Opened

THE MONTH of February has been designated as Membership Month at the Southeast Young Men's Christian Association.

An organization headed by Loudin J. Beam, Charles D. Rucker and Mrs. Ruth A. Green, consisting of twenty teams will seek to enroll 1,000 members during the thirty day period.

Many of the fine citizens of the Southeast community have not availed themselves of the membership offering and have thereby contributed to the poor performance in the membership department; this fact can be substantiated by the membership tabulation over a three-year period.

A STUDY by the census bureau indicated that there are approximately 90,000 people in the immediate vicinity of the Southeast YMCA. This should indicate that a 1,000 expectation should be within the bounds of reason.

The YMCA program and facilities are owned by its membership if either one of these items are to maintain a healthy position, then membership must remain up to strength.

During the next few weeks teams will be calling upon prospects to reaffirm their convictions and abilities to operate a YMCA in Southeast San Diego.

John F. Williams Named to Head Education Project

APPOINTMENT of John F. Williams, 35, of San Diego, as new coordinator of the city schools' Adult Education Department-Rosenberg Foundation Community Education Project was announced last week by Superintendent Ralph Dailard.

Dr. Dailard made the announcement during an evening neighborhood meeting of the Board of Education at Sunset View Elementary school.

Williams, until recently a supervising social caseworker for the San Diego Department of Social Welfare, succeeds

John W. Johnson as coordinator. Johnson resigned recently to accept an appointment as executive director of the San Diego Urban League.

The Community Education Project is being conducted with the aid of a three-year grant of $37,800 from the San Francisco-based Rosenberg Foundation. Its objective is to improve the educational and cultural level of families in low-income areas by extending adult education opportunities and job preparation and retraining activities.

THE THREE-YEAR project began in February last year. The coordinator is not a school district employe but is employed by the San Diego Education Fund, which administers gift funds for the district.

Williams is a native of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and holds a B.A. degree from Tennessee State University and a M.A. degree from New York University. A former Philadelphia Welfare Department employe, he was a welfare department worker here from September, 1959, until January.

HE IS A MEMBER of the Southeast Town Council and the Southeast YMCA Men's Club. He was named "Man of the Year," by the latter organization in 1963. He and his wife, Sybil, are the parents of two children, Kenneth and Vanessa Lynn.

'Dody' Pfeifer To Run Against Mills

Mrs. Dorothea (Dody) Pfeifer, a teacher in adult education in the San Diego City Schools, announced her candidacy for the Republican nomination for the 79th Assembly District on Thursday night at a gathering in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Evans.

MRS. PFIEFER, 41, is the wife of E. Victor Pfeifer, a local businessman, and they live with their three children, Fred, 17, Leona, 15, and Bradley, 13, at 3060 51st St.

A native of California, Mrs. Pfeifer received her education in public schools and her bachelor's degree from UCLA. She is presently teaching Citizenship to the foreign born and American Government at Hoover Adult High School.

ACTIVE IN REPUBLICAN politics for many years, Mrs. Pfeifer worked at the grassroots level for her party. She was co-founder of the Oak Park Federated Republican Women's Club.

She has been an active member of many civic and community groups, some of which include the PTA, Red Cross, League of Women Voters, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Delphians, University Women's Club and the Copley YMCA.

She says: "The control of the state by political bosses is dangerous. I wish to do my part to preserve and to hand on to my children and yours the traditional superiority of education and of governmental functions that California exemplified when Kathryn Niehous represented this district in Sacramento."

THE 79TH ASSEMBLY District has been represented for many years by women, one of whom was the late Kathryn Niehous, one of California's outstanding legislators and a person whom Mrs. Pfeifer has long admired.

Mrs. Pfeifer will run against incumbent Assemblyman James R. Mills.

SD Library Featuring Negro Books

The San Diego Public Library's Central Library is currently displaying books in honor of Negro History Week until February 16. Featured in the display are books on Negro history, biographies of eminent Negroes, books about the Negro in America, children's books about Negro life and books on the heritage of the Negro.

The display is featured in the Library's exhibit windows and in the main lobby.

An Editorial: Negro History Week

Negro History Week means many things to many people.

To the schoolboy, it comes as a time to join his fellow students in looking back with racial pride on events and distinguished people who have given him a rich heritage and a future to dream upon.

To the adult, engaged in the fight for equality, this is a time to turn to the past and gain impetus for the climb ahead. Use as your yardstick the courage and determination of those whose brown faces didn't deter them from accomplishing their goals. They, too, fought a hard fight—but a valiant one!

To those of non-Negro background, this is your

As I See It

By JAMES GILLIAM

THE DEBACLES of Prince Edward County, Virginia and Clarendon County, South Carolina, are the prize winners of modern civilization. The hard core of the latter is matched only by the legal maneuvering of the former.

Yet, ignorance reaches sky high and hell deep in both of these hot beds of resistance to change. While the fear of action in Clarendon County halts militancy and nothing is done, the militancy of Negroes in Prince Edward County serves to stimulate the hard core of white supremacy to entrench themselves deeper and deeper in the consummate ignorance which has enveloped them.

CLARENDON COUNTY (almost forgotten in the struggle for freedom) was the first area to be attacked by the NAACP in its fight for integration. The South Carolina Judge, J. Waite Waring and Lillian Smith, the novelist, gained fame because of their advocacy of freedom and integration for Negroes.

Yet, Clarendon County, like some ogre out of a story book, sits, like a monstrous gargoyle, totally oblivious of the civilization which passes around it. "With all deliberate speed" has meant "do nothing till you hear from me."

More recently, the National Education Association has put on a million dollar drive among teachers to help defray the cost of teaching all youngsters in free schools in Prince Edward.

A COURT BATTLE was started to enjoin the county to reopen the schools. Six of the seven Virginia judges ruled in favor of the state. One judge, Eggleston by name, pointed out that it was the bounden duty of the state to see to it that all children were given a free education in all the public schools of the state.

A later move has been made to ask the Supreme Court of the United States to review the State Court action. Pending this, the children of Prince Edward County are without law supported schools, which, at best, were not up to par. What is the future of the present stop-gap education program?

ADDITIONAL FUNDS are needed to implement the dollars sent by teachers from all over this nation. This generous expression in democratic action by teachers must be matched by the efforts of the local yokels. The white preachers are afraid to open their mouths lest they lose their charges. The local merchants are in debt up to their hind pockets to the vested interests from the North. Wives are afraid to open their mouths lest husbands lose their jobs or credit is tightened to the breaking point. Local citizens just don't talk about the school problem.

Yet, Prince Edward County is so poor that even the rabbits have to carry their own liquor to help raise hell. One crop farming has made the local citizens mean and disgruntled. But, the Negro has been made the scape goat for their anger.

THERE WAS AN OLD county training school on the site where the present high school is built. It wasn't a school at all. It was an old shack which was a disgrace to the eyes of traffic which passed on the highway beside it. At mid-century, the children had to walk a muddy path to get to the outside privies which had to be shored up with pine logs. And, woe to the youngster who forgot to bring leaves from the Sears-Roebuck Catalogue if he had a serious job to do.

Not one thing was done when the fight for equal salaries hit the state of Virginia. When the fight started for equal school facilities, the local cad chewers sat, like fat cats, and did absolutely nothing.

BUT CAME integration and a succession of principals of the local school!

In order to brain wash and control the local Negroes, teachers were intimidated and leaders were terrorized. Washer women and maids were used to spy on their husbands and remained at home without education of any sort. The board of supervisors refused to levy taxes for schools just to keep Negro children out of school.

TO REMEDY THIS, several things were done by Negroes themselves. Families, up and down the East Coast, took these children in so that they could be given additional schooling. Some parents were able to send their children to North Carolina and to relatives so that they would not grow up totally ignorant.

During the summer, the Virginia Teachers Association had teachers and college students go to Prince Edward County in lodge halls and church buildings in the effort to help them keep up.

TEACHERS GAVE their time freely to make democracy work where the spark was pretty well fanned out by local ignorance, prejudice and bigotry.

Speaking Out

by Harold Brown (Chairman, SD Congress of Racial Equality)

Civil Rights Action is once again getting out of low gear.

See President Kennedy's assassination there has been very little action to speak of except for S.N.C.C. (Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee) in its ever persistent drive for voter registration and abolition of discrimination in public accommodations in the south.

AT NOW THINGS are coming alive again and once more the Negro seems to be preparing for another push.

In Atlanta, Georgia, Negroes are going to jail in defiance of a court restraining order which would keep them from demonstrating against white bigotry; in New York, thousands of Negroes are boycotting schools in a fight against school de facto segregation; in Cleveland, Negroes are taking militant action against discrimination in housing and school segregation. Other cities that will soon be hot spots are Baltimore and Philadelphia.

WITHIN THE NEXT three months many cities throughout the nation will experience accelerated action from Negroes who are becoming increasingly more tired and frustrated from facing the day-to-day insult of being treated like a third class citizen.

"Tired of being poor-tired of being a so called Negro — just want to be free." These are the words coming from the mouths of many Negroes who are constantly scratching the itch to be free, and the hotter the weather the worse the itch, and the worse the itch the harder the scratch.

I LIKE THE WAY William Clay, St. Louis, Missouri interdemands the cold winters in jail if the white man can endure the long hot summers in the streets.

Negroes are realizing that if the fight for full equality of opportunities is not accelerated and the big push to eliminate discrimination in all areas is not continued, all past efforts can be wiped out in a very short time.

SAN DIEGO, the all-American City, is a good example of what can happen. For years Negroes throughout the nation have been fighting against discrimination in housing.

Now San Diego's Negroes are standing around looking at each other after watching thousands from San Diego's white community sign a petition that will not only do away with the Rumford Fair Housing Law which prohibits racial discrimination in housing, but also will make it impossible to get any more legislation passed pertaining to housing discrimination unless

Governor Brown's 'Negro History Week' Rededication Message

GOVERNOR Edmund G. Brown last week asked Californians to observe Negro History Week with a "rededication to the principles of freedom and equality upon which this nation was founded."

The governor issued a statement noting that Negro History Week from February 9-15 is observed while the Negro is still struggling for freedom and equality.

"IN THE SOUTH, in the North, in California, the Negro's struggle for freedom, civil rights and equality goes on today as it has since America's earliest history.

"This month the nation notes that struggle by observing Negro History Week from February 9-15.

"DURING THIS WEEK I urge Californians to join the nation in noting not only the Negro's historical contribution to the growth and development of this country but, more importantly, his prospects for the future.

"For today, the Negro still is often a stranger in our midst, thwarted by segregation and discrimination, threatened with deprivation of his constitutional guarantees, deprived of the equal opportunity for employment and housing and harassed by prejudice and ignorance.

"HAVE WE NOT ALL contributed to this ignorance? Who among us knows of the Negro's contribution in the American Revolution, how he fought in the Civil War and every war thereafter? How many of us know of his contributions in agriculture, education, science and the arts?

"Negro History Week presents an opportunity to Californians to learn the answers to those questions and others. More than that, it is an opportunity for all of us to join in a rededication to the principles of freedom and equality upon which this nation was founded and upon which its ultimate security rests. For we cannot survive half free. History tells us that. Let us ask ourselves today whether we have accepted the lessons of history and its pledges written in the Declaration of Independence and Constitution that all men are created free and shall share equally in the liberties of our nation."

OPINIONS IN PASSING

By Daniel W. Brown, M.D.

The Survival of Man and Country

IN AMERICA our unsolved problem of racism must be considered as a program supported by our country.

Are Americans Racists? Our education of democracy as related to human rights contradicts the conduct against citizens throughout parts of the U.S. in our present racial situation — characterized by many arrests of children and adults, and abuse of a citizen because of his color.

A PROGRAM contradictory to the basic needs of a citizen is called "legalized segregation." Human bondage in 1963 by law-abiding citizens in a country for advancement, and far advanced in many other fields of our society, yet unable to control the program of racism by racists is disgusting.

These are contradictory acts inconsistent with human dignity and democratic principles found in our constitution — tolerated by our nation.

NO ONE APOLOGY nor many apologies can justify or excuse this problem found in our country. This is a distorted education of human freedoms and of human values. No one agent of government is willing to assume the full responsibility to abolish this degenerative system.

All Americans must realize this unsolved problem cannot be tolerated any longer by reasonable and sane citizens without destroying our country in the eyes of the world. Human dignity and human respect must be the image Americans must develop because human disrespect relegates the image of Americans to the lowest classification of human beings.

THE "UGLY AMERICAN" must not be our classification. This is a human problem, a human tragedy, a notion, a crime of man against man... an unyielding human system of racism unresolved in 1963, promoting the destruction of America. Americans who are good and reasonable allowing racists to control their image at home and abroad do not make sense.

A HUMAN CRISIS, a failure to see the importance, an urgent need to change! Is this, indeed, the American Genius??

Letters To The Editor

Helping FEPC

Editor: Thank you for your help in the opening of our new Fair Employment Practices office in San Diego.

You have done a magnificent job with the paper, with the community, and for all of us devoted Democrats.

My thanks, also, to your fine photographer. Regards, (Signed) Mrs. Carmen H. Warschaw, Chairman Fair Employment Practices Commission

Letter to City Manager

Editor: The following is a copy of a letter which was sent to the City Manager, which I wish you would print:

Mr. Thomas W. Fletcher, City Manager, Civic Center, San Diego, California

Dear Mr. Fletcher: On September 29, 1963, I wrote you in reference to the immediate — the dire need of sidewalks in the vicinity of the Valencia Park Elementary School and the O'Farrell Junior High School. At that time I also enclosed a petition from many interested and concerned parents.

To date I have had no reply from you, but the concern and need are not only still present but have greatly increased, especially with the unusual amount of rain, which in turn increases the hazards of muddy and puddle-filled roadsides or the choice of walking in the way of traffic.

I am enclosing additional signatures of interested parents who are petitioning for these sidewalks and would appreciate your immediate attention to this great need.

I am also enclosing a notice in the Elementary School PTA paper, which says in essence that the children should walk in the mud rather than face the dangers of injury from automobiles.

I would appreciate an immediate reply. Sincerely yours, (Signed) Mrs. Loudin J. Beam, Copies to: Mayor Curran, City Council, Board of Education

Complaint With Bill

Editor: Because we feel the San Diego and surrounding communities need more information about the CORE (Congress of Racial Equality) and San Diego Gas and Electric Company situation, we hope you will publish the enclosed letter and electric bill.

Thank you. Sincerely yours, (Signed) (Mr. and Mrs.) Arthur Brodshatzer, 4722 Greenbrier, San Diego, Calif. 92120

S.D. Gas & Electric Company, P.O. Box 4175, San Diego, Calif. 92104

Dear Sirs: We are paying this bill under protest. As customers of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company and as residents of the San Diego Community, we feel that your firm owes our community a detailed report on the allegations made by CORE (Congress of Racial Equality). The statement that you are an equal opportunity employer does not seem adequate. Your company has refused to:

- 1. Discuss the issues at public meetings with CORE.
2. Discuss the issues at public meetings without CORE.
3. Accept the good offices of the Citizens Interracial Committee (CIC) in its effort to resolve this problem.
4. Act on the recommendation of two leading and respected local commissions. After a unanimous vote, the Human Relations and Civic Affairs Commissions of the San Diego County Council of Churches urged you to accept CIC's offer.

Since public corporations are accountable ultimately to the public, your continued refusal to participate in public meetings, is difficult to understand. Such leading corporations as the International Business Machines Corporation (IBM) and the American Telephone and Telegraph Company (AT&T), have shown their awareness of the crisis in our country, by agreeing to employ more minorities as quickly as possible. These firms have recognized that they must do their part now, as well as in the future. We would like to do business with a public utilities company that emulates the actions of the aforementioned (and other) corporations. Time is running out and court injunctions will not make the problem go away.

We feel you should settle the issues with CORE. If you fail to do so, the public is entitled to a complete and comprehensive review of your position. These matters are too crucial to remain in the corporate archives.

Sincerely yours, (Signed) (Mr. and Mrs.) Arthur Brodshatzer, 4722 Greenbrier, San Diego, Calif. 92120

Charity Begins at Home

A long time ago, peoples of foreign countries started a rumor going the rounds . . . that Americans were "suckers."

We'll admit that at times, we, as Americans, are gullible . . . to an overflowing degree.

But this past week, when contributions to Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald, widow of the suspected assassin of the late President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, totalled $24,000 . . . we began taking a long look at the extent of our "gullibility."

We believe that we, as Americans, are guilty!

Immediately following the assassination of President Kennedy, Mrs. Oswald was placed upon Federal "protection." The poorly dressed and drab widow was, at first, hostile to all questioning concerning her husband. She, appropriately, mourned her loss with a great deal of emotion.

During the past few weeks, the widow has blossomed into an attractive young woman . . . and appears many years younger than when first pictured in news medias across the country.

Lately, she has become articulate . . . and glamorous-ously coy.

This is all very good. There is absolutely nothing wrong with a woman trying to better her appearance . . . and her personality.

However, why should the widow of an alleged slayer of a beloved President of the United States . . . become a symbol of "Before And After" success?

Especially . . . if it takes $24,000 to do this.

We realize that we're fighting communism in this country; and aiding Mrs. Oswald is part of that fight. Isn't that why Mrs. Oswald is receiving large donations of money?

Isn't it discouraging to think that these same people who are so generously giving . . . to the widow of the alleged slayer of President Kennedy . . . couldn't see fit to allow a little of their generosity to dribble down into the coffers of the Civil Rights fighters . . . for the very same reason — to fight communism?

That old adage concerning "charity beginning at home" certainly should apply to Mrs. Oswald . . . and to the Civil Rights fight. Why can't we clear up our image at home . . . where it's been shaded so long . . . before we extend ourselves and our generosity — as Americans — to all the people thrust into the limelight because of a national tragedy such as the assassination of President Kennedy.

We wonder how many folks who have donated to Mrs. Oswald . . . would, in turn, give a dollar or two toward killing off the "initiative" against the Rumford Bill?

time . . . to become aware of why we can go on . . . and on . . . in hope . . . for a better tomorrow.

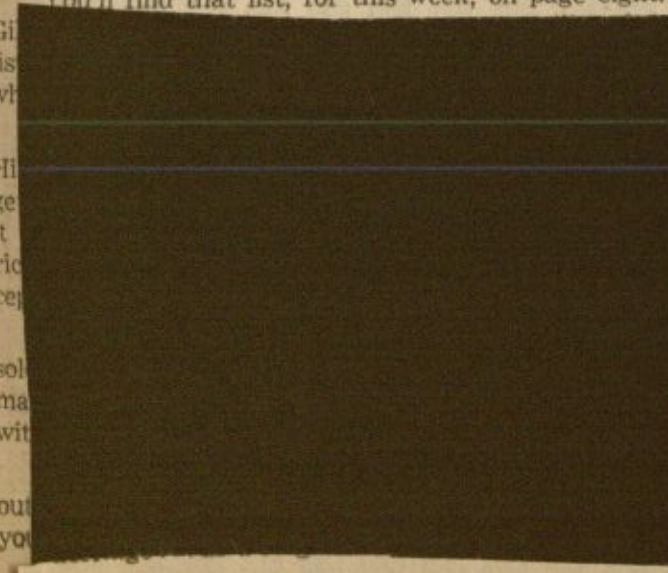

If you're at all hazy on some of the fine points of Negro History, we suggest that you attend one of the numerous meetings taking place during this impressive week . . . and learn about us.

There is, currently, a fine exhibit of Negro literature . . . on display at the San Diego Public Library. See it . . . and perhaps borrow some of the recommended books.

There are organizations . . . and Negro teachers right here in San Diego . . . ready and willing to tell you something of the richness and glory of the Negro and his achievements.

This newspaper has been carrying a series of suggested books to read, compiled by our own James Gilliam . . . read as many of them as you can . . . and gain a knowledge of the Negro and his past history.

You'll find that list, for this week, on page eight.

(ABOUT PEOPLE AND PLACES)

Guess what? There's a delightful group of real talented girls around... who are running us over here at The Voice REAL competition! They're putting out a NEWSPAPER!

However, we don't mind one bit. In fact, we're going to give them our best... and heartiest... congratulations.

The newspaper is called "Chatter Box"... and it is edited and published each and every month... by the Girls' Club of San Diego... with young lassies such as Joedda Harris... Billie Jean Mark... Melva Johnson... Selma Johnson... Leatha Kirkland... and their editorial staffers doing an excellent job.

There is just one continued need... over at the Girls' Club of San Diego... that is yet unmet.

We'd like to see more... and more... of us... serving as volunteers.

When you think of more than 675 girls — between the ages of six and sixteen — attending the Girls' Club to make use of its recreational and vocational activities... you can realize the need for more... and more volunteers.

Presently, within our community, we have Mmes. Alpha L. Montgomery... and J. J. Kimbrough serving on the Girls' Club of San Diego Board of Directors.

If you have an extra hour... or two... in which you have a feeling of Spring laziness closing in... why not contact Mrs. Walter H. Crapo, executive director of the Girls' Club (at 606 South 30th Street)... and offer some of that time to helping the program go over successfully... by volunteering your services?

Ruth and Leon Washington, publishers of the Los Angeles Sentinel, were in our town last week... attending the sessions of the California Newspaper Publishers Association... over at the Del Coronado. Their newspaper received Honorable Mention for its Youth Page... at appropriate ceremonies during the Saturday morning breakfast session. Governor Edmund G. Brown presented the awards to the participating newspapers.

Ruth kept close to all the activity at the Del Coronado during the convention... but Leon found time to relax and chat with his good friends Attorneys Ed Maddox and Alpha Montgomery... who brought him by to say "Hi" to we'uns.

We're happy to see effervescent Esther Mae Reyes back operating her beautiful Rainbow Floral and Gift Shop... at 2589 Imperial Avenue... and placing her pretty touches to beautiful bouquets that cheer her customers.

The president and members of The Oddballs (a club organized at Clairemont High School) were excited as all get out... over the appearance of Hal Brown, president of the San Diego Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) at their last meeting. Hal's

Chinese New Year Calls For Typical Oriental Food Fare

By Louise Adams
(VOICE Food Editor)

TODAY, our well known citizens such as City Councilman Tom Hom and his family — and Miss Helen Hom (no relation) and her family are observing the Chinese New Year.

However, you don't have to be Chinese to love Chinese food at this time of year. In fact, there are Chinese restaurants to be found in the most unlikely places all over this wide land, not to mention the many canned and frozen Chinese foods found in most markets. The Orientals love well-favored food, and their cooking has tremendous appeal to Americans with their broad food tastes and interests. So why not celebrate the Chinese New Year with a typical dinner in your own home, just for fun?

THE CHINESE New Year is not a set holiday such as the one observed on the Gregorian Calendar, the day occurring at the second new moon following the Winter solstice, between January 20 and February 19. This year it falls on Thursday, February 13.

The familiar and popular egg roll, so traditional in Chinese cuisine, is called the spring roll at New Year's. A typical and delicious entree for a Chinese dinner might be chicken wings, smothered in a luscious sweet-sour sauce of pineapple chunks, orange juice, soy sauce, vinegar, ginger, and the spicy touch of Tabasco sauce, the liquid red pepper seasoning found in cuisines the world over. No Chinese meal would be complete without tea, and while the Chinese never sweeten it at any other time, they will at New Year's to symbolize the sweetening of the year ahead. Dinner is topped off with a tidbit in the form of a piece of ginger or candy. This is tendered especially to the children in hopes that out of the mouths of babes will come sweet sayings all year long!

THE DRAGON, as shown in the photo, is the symbol for this year. It symbolizes power, and also rain to encourage good crops. At New Year's, the Chinese make three wishes: for happiness, long life and many sons.

CHINESE CHICKEN WINGS

- 12 chicken wings
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 small onion, sliced
- 1 can (8½ ounces) pineapple chunks (about 1 cup) Orange juice
- ¼ cup soy sauce
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- 1 teaspoon ginger
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon mace
- ½ teaspoon Tabasco
- ¼ teaspoon dry mustard
- 1½ tablespoons cornstarch

Fold tips of wings under to form a triangle. Melt butter in large skillet; add wings and onion; cook until brown on both sides, about 10 minutes. Drain pineapple; reserve chunks. Measure syrup and add orange juice to make 1½ cups liquid. Blend together soy sauce, sugar, vinegar, ginger, salt, mace, Tabasco and dry mustard; pour over chicken. Cover and simmer about 30 minutes or until tender, basting top pieces with liquid once or twice. Remove wings to hot platter. To thicken sauce, add a little cold water to cornstarch and blend in some of the hot liquid; add to hot liquid with pineapple chunks; stir and bring to a boil. Serve chicken wings and sauce with steamed rice.

YIELD: 4 servings.

+ Food Feature +

JUST FOR FUN, try celebrating the Chinese New Year, today, February 13th, with this typical dinner prepared at home. It features sweet-sour chicken wings and has all the succulent flavor which is a favorite in homes and restaurants. [See Voice Food Editor's story on this page.]
