As I See It

By JAMES GILLIAM

IF YOU HAVE NOT registered to vote, please do so without any further delay! In the coming days you will be called upon to vote for some very serious issues which will affect your lives for years to come. Don't let this opportunity pass to become one of the makers of history.

THERE IS A LOT of heat and confusion among candidates and about issues. As the days move along, the pace is going to get faster and the issues hotter. Yet, if you know the background and understand what is taking place, you will be able to assay both candidates and issues for what they are worth. What is more, you'll not be caught in the froth of hysteria and emotional dysfunction. While you sit before your radio and TV, you can easily evaluate the facts and vote intelligently when the time comes.

THERE WILL APPEAR on your ballot either in June or November an initiative proposition bearing the noble name of "lottery" and purporting to raise money for schools. Many of you might have already signed the petition asking that this be placed on the ballot. You were told that this would help to lower your taxes and that you would not have to be taxed for schools in the future. Such is not the truth at all.

THE TICKETS WILL cost about two dollars each. One dollar and seventy-six cents of this amount will be used for paying salaries and to buy prizes and for schools. The remainder will go to the sponsoring company. The money to be used for schools will be the ONLY money to be used for schools. This is estimated to be something like three hundred million dollars a year. This is a mere drop in the bucket compared to the real needs of the schools in the state.

THE OTHER SIDE of the coin is starkly different. In the next six years, there will be a need for three quarters of a billion dollars a year to support the schools. A mere three hundred million will not foot that bill. On the other hand, if that same three hundred million would supplement or add to the continued appropriations for education, one might accept the idea of the lottery.

HOW ELSE DO YOU suppose financial deficiencies will be made up except through local taxes? Don't be duped into voting for this lottery and later find that you've short changed the schools for your children.

ONLY A LOTTERY which spends every cent for education and also which supplements the regular state appropriation can do the kind of job you will want done. Yet, the truly big stinger in this whole scheme is that the education of your children will depend on how much others

Speaking Out

by Harold Brown
 (Chairman, SD Congress of Racial Equality)

Was Abraham Lincoln a white supremacist? "Citizens' Councils of America" speak out on this question. Whenever we hear the word "Citizens' Council," we know that means "bad news" for the Negro. Of course, we always precede "Citizens' Council" with the word "white." However, the Citizens' Councils of America leave out the word "white" (guess it is well understood that it is for whites only) so I will too.

Let's get back to the question at hand. Was Abraham Lincoln the great white emancipator Negroes believe him to be? According to the official journal of the Citizens' Councils of America, February issue, and an article that appeared in the New York Times, February 11th edition, Lincoln was a segregationist and a white supremacist, and he made it very clear that he was just that.

WHAT IS SO WRONG about special legislation to protect Negro Citizens from segregation and discrimination? Why do some persons want to remove the law which permits you a fair deal in living wherever your means will permit you to live?

IF YOU MUST register, and you ought to have done so by now, you ought to register just so you can defeat this initiative amendment and defeat any candidate who seeks office and who supports the amendment.

THE ARTICLE GOES ON to quote Lincoln as saying, "I will say then that I am not, nor ever have been, in favor of bringing about in any way the social and political equality of the white and black races—that I am not, nor ever have been, in favor of making voters or jurors of negroes, nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor to intermarry with white people and I will say in addition to this that there is a physical difference between the white and black races which will ever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality. And inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together, there must be the position of superior and inferior, and I, as much as any other man, am in favor of having the superior position assigned to the white race." (Spoken in sixth joint debate with Senator Douglas at Quincy, Illinois, October 13, 1858). Abraham Lincoln Complete Works, edited by Nicolay and Hay. The Century Company, 1894, page 273.

THE ARTICLE FURTHER points out that Lincoln stated that there is a "broader difference between whites and blacks than exists between almost any other two races." This physical difference is a great disadvantage to both, both races suffer from the presence of the other; therefore, it is better for both to be separated. Those words, the article states, were spoken to a committee of colored men at the White House, August 14, 1862.

DRIVER TRAINING Classes For Adults Start April 14th

New classes in driver education and training will open at the Memorial Adult Center, 2884 Marcy Avenue, on Tuesday, April 14; and at the Lincoln Adult Center, 49th and Imperial, on Wednesday, April 15. The class offers behind-the-wheel instruction as well as classroom instruction in basic principles of driving, laws and responsibilities of a driver, and the care and maintenance of an automobile. There is a fee of $3.00 for eighteen three-hour classes of instruction. For further information call 234-2186 or 262-8605.

SCHOOLS PLAN For Public Week Apr. 19

All 155 schools of the San Diego city school district are preparing for the observance of Public Schools Week, April 19 to 26, Superintendent Ralph Dailard said this week. The 45th annual observance, sponsored statewide by the California Grand Lodge of Masons, in cooperation with local organizations, is designed to help citizens learn about the importance, activities, and operation of the public schools. During Public Schools Week, citizens will be urged to participate in the day and evening open house activities which will be scheduled by each school, Dailard said. In addition, service clubs and neighborhood civic groups are encouraged to schedule weekly meetings, or luncheons, in their local area school. The activities of the week will center around the theme, "The Public School... America's Future."

OPINIONS IN PASSING

By Daniel W. Brown, M.D.

U.S.A. and Racial Discrimination—To discriminate a citizen by law is called legalized segregation. To discriminate a citizen by law because of his color or race is legalized racial segregation. To discriminate a citizen because of his birth is a moral issue. To discriminate a citizen because of his religion, nationality or creed is also immoral. To discriminate a citizen because of his education is snobbishness. To discriminate a person because he is poor, or physically or mentally deficient, is dishonesty.

THE ACTS OF DISCRIMINATION by a society makes the society an abnormal society. All abnormal societies will destroy man, religion and society. The destructive nature of discrimination involves an immoral act, a dishonest act, an act of murder and exploitation of man, and the death of a citizen. This threatens the personal safety of all men.

RACIAL EXCLUSION of a citizen of color has been America's past and present education and practices. This education will continue as long as one racial law restricting a man's life remains upon our law books. America's hope is found in the present debates in Congress and the successful passage of an adequate Civil Rights Bill will determine America's future course.

AMERICA AND ITS "WALL OF RACISM" must be abolished. Every school Board of Education, every religion and every family in America must implement a program to educate every citizen to the true values of Democracy and its meaning to the personal safety of every citizen in public and in private life.

MIDWAY THROUGH the year, the Tallusmen Society announced for participation in the Easter Bonnet and several young ladies responded. EDITORIAL Women Make Headlines

I don't know how you felt . . . when you read of the militant and heroic action displayed by Massachusetts Governor Endicott Peabody's mother, Mrs. Malcolm Peabody, in St. Augustine, Florida . . . last Tuesday . . . but I felt downright guilty . . . of not doing my part . . . while a woman who had little, or no, reason to do so . . . had helped the entire Negro race.

Here's a wealthy woman . . . with distinguished family background . . . and a husband who enjoys prestige within ecclesiastical circles . . . who jeopardizes her physical well-being . . . by boldly, but yet with great dignity, taking part in a racial demonstration to desegregate a motel in the historic city of St. Augustine.

Along with the challenge to the motel, Mrs. Peabody also sought to integrate an Episcopal church in the same city. The church was forced to lock its doors and cancel a communion service . . . in order to keep its grounds free from the invasion of Negroes.

Mrs. Peabody had watched as police in St. Augustine, backed up by ferocious police dogs and armed with electric cattle prodding rods, had arrested 150 Negroes who had attempted to be seated and to eat in the dining room of the motel.

To a lady . . . with the intellect and the inbred ideals of Mrs. Malcolm Peabody . . . this must have been a sickening sight to witness.

Because she stood up for what was right — both morally and legally — Mrs. Peabody was arrested, along with her white friends Mrs. Donald J. Campbell, Professor J. Lawrence Burkholder of the Harvard Divinity School; and St. Augustine Negroes Mrs. Nellie Mitchell, Mrs. Lillian Robinson, Mrs. Georgia Ann Reed, Miss Kuther Ubanks and Mrs. Rosalee Phelps.

Mrs. Peabody didn't shun nor back down . . . when all were arrested. She refused to have bail posted . . . and went right along to jail with her Negro companions.

James Hyde, manager of the Ponce de Leon Motor Lodge ordered the arrest.

We wonder now Hyde felt . . . moments after the arrest . . . when it was made known that Hyde had caused the arrest of the Governor's mother!

In this day and time . . . you just can't tell how high up . . . the people may be . . . who are marching right alongside of the common, ordinary man in the street . . . for racial equality. In this case, it went right up to a Governor's mansion.

To me . . . and to many other Negroes . . . Mrs. Peabody has joined the ranks of the top women in history. She became a heroine in a great American drama that is being written each and every day.

This 72-year-old grandmother, mother of a state governor and wife of a retired Episcopal bishop, has carved a new dimension in American history. She rejected her age, her social position and the magic of her name, to march (side by side with Negro women) in defending the principles of Christianity and Americanism.

With racial violence looming just around the corners of democracy . . . Mrs. Peabody by her calmness and dignity, had more impact on the mood of restlessness . . . than any action of vicious attack or paranoia . . . which is about to sweep the country.

I am proud that Mrs. Peabody . . . is a woman. I am proud that Mrs. Peabody . . . is an American. I am proud that Mrs. Peabody is an American woman . . . with courage!

Mrs. Peabody has joined the legend . . . that is the reserve of the late Eleanor Roosevelt . . . and Mary McCloud Bethune!

In Politics, Too

While women in the political arena . . . aren't usually inclined to display a "beyond the call of duty" degree of militancy . . . we have strong convictions about two prominent women who are heading up their respective party delegations on the distaff side.

Both of them are politically astute . . . attractive . . . and articulate.

For the Democratic ranks, Mrs. Carmen Warschaw, Women's Vice Chairman of the California Democratic State Central Committee, will represent the female faction when the Democratic Women's Convention takes place in Washington, D.C., on April 30th.

On the Republican front, Mrs. Patricia Hitt, Republican National Committeewoman, will spearhead the policy and structure of the National Federation of Republican Women and their half a million, 4000 club strength in fifty states.

Both women are highly important to their respective political parties.

It is no secret that the outcome of the 1964 elections — whether within the city, state or national levels — will be decided by the women's voting power.

There are close to four million more women than men of voting age in this country. Misses Hitt and Warschaw aim to get to them . . . and when women set their minds to do something . . . you might as well watch out. They get it done!

A well deserved "thank you" is extended to J. B. Hemphill for a job well done, at the Stars For Freedom Festival. His instructions to the ushers were well executed. They were marvelous and very, very polite, attired in white blouses and black skirts.

Everyone talks about meal magic. It's really possible you know. All it takes is a well stocked shelf of canned condensed soups. The contents of those cans turn into sauces or cooking ingredients as fast and as tastily as you could ever dream.

And, an even bigger bonus to homemakers this month (copied with hobbles filing income tax returns) canned condensed soups are penny-pinchers, too. Economical to use, they turn the most ordinary cuts of meat and fish into gastronomic delights.

As meatless, as well as inexpensive, meals are on most everyone's minds these days, here's a glamorous entree worthy of special occasions. Celery Stuffed Blue Fish makes its debut at the dinner table, stuffed and sauced with canned condensed cream of celery soup. Sound impossible? Not at all!

Some of the soup binds bread cubes, minced onion and chopped dill pickle to make a highly complementary filling for the fish.

The sauce of remaining soup contains more dill pickle, parsley, and sour cream.

Garnish your fish platter with broiled mushroom caps ... and lemon wedges. For a tart conclusion a fruit flavored Danish pudding (the packaged variety).

CELERY STUFFED BLUE FISH
2 cups dry small bread crumbs
1/4 cup finely minced onion
1/2 cup chopped dill pickle
3 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of celery soup
1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
2 blue fish (about 1 1/2 pounds each), dressed and boned.
1/2 cup sour cream
In bowl, combine bread, onion, 2 tablespoons pickle, 2 tablespoons parsley, 1/2 cup soup, and butter; mix well. Stuff fish with bread mixture; fasten with skewers or toothpicks. Place fish in shallow pan; dot with soft butter. Bake at 350°F. for 30 to 40 minutes. Meanwhile, in saucepan, combine remaining soup, pickle, and parsley; add sour cream. Heat, stirring now and then. Serve with fish. Makes 4 servings.

And All That Jazz

By Bill Granger

A FOLK AND JAZZ Wing with headliner Cal Tjader will appear at 8:00 p.m., this Saturday, April 11, in Peterson Gymnasium, at San Diego State.

The show, the Ford Caravan of Music, stars jazzman Tjader, folk singer Judy Henske, the Modern Folk Quartet and balladeer Steve DePass. It is part of the spring popular concert series to be sponsored by the associated students.

ALTHOUGH TJADER was born of show business parents, he decided to major in education at college. Throughout his studies at San Jose State and San Francisco State colleges, Tjader doubled as a musician at night in San Francisco groups.

In 1948 he turned to music full time, joining the Dave Brubeck Trio as vibraphonist and drummer. Tjader left Brubeck in 1950 and after a short while of leading his own group, joined the George Shearing Quintet as featured vibraphone player.

IN 1952 TJADER won the Down Beat New Star Award being the overwhelming selection of the critics.

When he formed his own group after leaving Shearing, it was a mambo-jazz quintet, with a heavy accent on mambo. In 1956 Tjader reorganized his group because, "I felt we had gone as far as we could with the Latin formula."

ON HIS OWN POSITION in jazz, Tjader says, "I'm not an innovator, I'm a participator. It's all essentially a group effort. I believe a group sound is more important to make a band go over than the individual improvising talents of its members. Yet you should play for yourself and be happy in your playing. And above all, whatever you do has to swing."

"And Baby Makes Three," and "Land's End," are among a number of compositions by Tjader.

TICKETS ARE on sale at the campus bookstore; Theatre's downtown; Southern California Music Company, Mission Valley; Ballard and Brockett, Chula Vista; Walker Scott, College Grove; and San Diego Trust and Savings, La Jolla.

Lemony Light Molds

- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup corn starch
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 3 cups cold water
- 1/4 cup lemon juice
- Grated rind of 1 lemon
- 2 egg whites
- Raspberries

Combine sugar, corn starch and salt in double boiler top. Gradually blend in water. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens, 10 to 15 minutes. Cover and continue cooking over boiling water, stirring occasionally, 30 minutes. Let cool 5 minutes. Stir in lemon juice and rind. Beat egg whites until peaks form when beater is raised. Gradually stir lemon mixture into egg whites, blending well. Pour into individual molds. Chill thoroughly. Unmold and garnish with raspberries. Serve with fresh berry sauce. Makes about 10 molds.

PRESENTATION of a Superior Accomplishment Award, based upon her outstanding performance of assigned duties in the Stock Control Division, was made to Mrs. Navrelle V. Bellinger of 1051 57th Street in recently held ceremonies at the local Naval

How 'bout That?

Point of No Return

By RUTH NUTTALL

I can now authoritatively report a second thing my nearly-ex-husband, Chris, used to do that I miss — make out our income tax return.

Good old 1964 will be remembered forevermore by me as The Year I Filed My Own Income Tax Return.

Furthermore, good old 1964 may be remembered for the same reason by whatever obscure but dedicated public servant processes my pages of figures.

Not only is my nearly-ex not even now in the same town with my mountains of receipts, sales slips and salary check stubs, but he never would deign to explain to me, during our wedded bliss, why I should save all that stuff in order to make out the return.

He just used to shout tenderly, "It's?? it! Just save everything and don't ask so many '?????' stupid questions!"

Once, hubby found a carefully folded piece of old bloody butcher paper among a year's collection of stuff I'd saved for him in blind, mute obedience.

His bellow ripped the rafters. Pointing sanctimoniously to the butcher's scrawled figures on the wrappings, I said icily, "You told me to save everything."

The second most serious crisis came the year the good man asked me to add up the interest we'd paid on our house.

He just adored setting little traps for me like that. Chris knew in the first place that I couldn't add. He knew in the second place that turning me loose,

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
from The Bible
Thou wilt guide me with thy counsel.—(Psalms 73:24).

In every person there is a quiet place in which God abides, and it is to this quiet place that we can always turn for Divine guidance and wisdom.

on my own, with the payment book as stupid as most of my questions.

Anyway, I came up with a figure something like $808. I'm sure wherever he is right now, hubby is waving his arms and regaling somebody with the fact that I had added up the date column.

And, somehow, when you add Jan. 1 (1 1) to Feb. 1 (2 1), and on down the line, the resulting figure may be interesting, but is not the interest figure the government is after.

(Frankly, I don't know why. It is after absolutely everything else.)

Chris was not what you'd call a drinking man, but he always seemed to need libations on any occasions requiring his attention to my account keeping. Like the checkbook thing.

I don't know why he should have been so concerned about my checking account. He had flatly refused to allow his name to be associated with it, so it was mine, all mine.

But whenever a check bounced (which was always because the damn bank had taken out its service charge, not because I didn't have enough money) Chris would buy a six-pack of beer, sit down with my checkbook, and become absolutely wild-eyed over my check stubs, for heaven's sake.

"Who is W.K.?" he would demand, "And this W.C. — who's that?"

"What do you mean 'who'?" I would demand right back. "That obviously means 'Who knows?' or 'Who cares?' — which has been my lifelong philosophy concerning money which is already spent."

I saw one check-stub session even drive my husband to a second six-pack. If he had not dissolved my checking account, the poor man probably would have ended up with Alcoholics Anonymous.

Chris was just as psychotic about change I brought home from the grocery store. He could have saved himself a lot of aggravation by simply never asking me how much change I had.

But he seemed to find the question irresistible — even though he knew that though the heavens fell down and hell froze over, I would not count change at a counter in front of the clerk who had given it to me.

First of all, it is impolite. Counting the change someone has just given you is tantamount to accusing him of dishonesty.

Secondly, it is highly impractical if you yourself can't add two and two.

Finally, that dadblamed counting backwards deal they do is a mystery which will never be plumbed by little ole me anymore than Einstein's Theory.

But ever since my husband was bugged by the time I came home with change for $5 instead of $20, he crusaded for change-counting.

Oh, well. My fiscal problems belong only to me and the government, now.

I've bought a big $1.50 red, white and blue book titled "Income Tax Guide." After skimming a couple of pages I have decided I am at the point of no return! Leavenworth? Nobody there pays taxes.

San Diego... After Dark

by Man-About-Town

Hey... what about that Ocean View Boulevard businessman... whose Valencia Park romance has had the town talking for a long time now... as he keeps his olive-skinned sweetie separated—socially—from his dark brown skinned ole lady?

The town's still snickering over that couple who showed up real drunk to pay their respects to a family who had just been struck by sudden death. The man was asked out of the house. Proper apologies haven't been heard yet—although the man has had a few sober spells since then.

That notorious preacher (who is still trying to climb up the ladder of fame) would be run out of San Diego... if the race leader knew about his all-out romance with his wife... while the race leader was doing a stint for "Uncle."

A secretary is "boozing" back... on and off her job... but her boss can't tell the difference between her sober and "potted" periods. She acts rather silly-dilly either way.

Two chicks are comparing love letters... received from the same middle-aged guy. He doesn't even know that both femmes are cousins, but he's likely to find out this coming week. Then... fireworks!

That "appointee" can't give up politics... and is pulling the "after dark" political action but folks are getting wise and getting information to use later!

Also involved in politics... is a group that's supposed to stay out of politics for a very good reason. Say it ain't so!

The "brother" is becoming restless... and isn't going to take much more "stuff" off that "Uncle Tom" right in his midst. He's going to hit him where it hurts most... right in his pocketbook... in a most unusual manner.

What about the prominent man... and his Mexican love affair... which is being talked about all over town... since his wife is getting wise but says she doesn't want a divorce... just the money, honey!

Logan Temple Laymen's Group Entertaining

The Laymen's Society of Logan Temple AME Zion Church, 302 South 32nd Street, will sponsor a Hootenanny on Saturday evening, April 18th, at the San Diego Girls Club, 606 South 30th Street.

"An evening of outstanding entertainment is being planned by the church group to provide a new area of amusement for adults in our community," Laymen's Society president Lawrence Smith stated.

Western style dress will be the order of the evening. A group of volunteer musicians will add to the merriment, and there will be talent testing for prizes. All this entertainment, together with good food and other ingredients will make the event a pleasant one. The public is invited to attend.

Melting Moments

- 1/2 cup corn starch
- 1/2 cup confectioners sugar
- 1 cup sifted flour
- 1/4 cup corn oil margarine
- coconut

Sift corn starch, confectioners sugar and flour together into mixing bowl. Blend in corn oil margarine with spoon, mixing until soft dough forms. Shape into 1-inch balls. Place about 1/2 inches apart on ungreased cookies sheet; flatten with slightly floured fork. Sprinkle with coconut. Bake in 300 degrees F. (slow) oven 20 to 25 minutes, until edges are lightly browned. Makes about 2 dozen cookies.

Note: If dough is too soft to handle, cover and chill in refrigerator 1 hour.

Ministers Tour to Plan Convention

BISHOP E. B. STEWART of Los Angeles, who will serve with Bishop E. E. Hamilton of San Francisco as co-host for the 1964 International Sunday School Convention of the Church of God in Christ to be held in San Francisco July 20-24, and Rev. George Scott, Jr., of Santa Barbara who is presently in residence in San Francisco handling arrangements for the convention, returned to their respective homes last week from a tour of Texas and Louisiana in connection with the convention.

Bishop Stewart, who serves the Northern California diocese of Churches of God in Christ and is pastor of Mount Oliver Church of God in Christ in Los Angeles, and Rev. Scott spent two weeks visiting church and prominent church officials in Dallas, Ft. Worth, Longview, Lubbock and Shreveport, La.

THE JULY CONVENTION is expected to draw approximately 8,000 persons from throughout the nation to San Francisco, where convention headquarters will be maintained at the Masonic Temple Auditorium, 111 California St. Host church will be the Emanuel Church of God in Christ, 1540 Post St., of which convention co-host Bishop E. E. Hamilton is pastor. Bishop L. C. Patrick of Detroit, Mich. is International Sunday School Convention president.

Following their return from the two-week tour, Rev. Scott announced that arrangements were completed for chartered buses to bring delegates from Texas and Louisiana. There are approximately 500 churches in the general area of Northwest and Northeast Texas and Western Louisiana. REV. SCOTT left San Francisco this week to attend the annual Spring Call Meeting in Memphis, Tenn., April 14-16. Bishops and pastors from throughout the nation will attend the 3-day business session to be held at Mason Temple in Memphis, which is National Headquarters of the Churches of God in Christ and is presided over by Bishop O. T. Jones, Sr., who resides in Philadelphia.

Hatcher To Speak For N.C. Bahai's

Robert Hatcher of Santa Ana will be the guest speaker at a public meeting sponsored by the National City Bahai's Community on Saturday, April 11, at 8 p.m. in the Community Room of the Silver Gate Savings and Loan Building, 10th and Highland in National City.

Mr. Hatcher is a teacher and lecturer for the Bahai' World Faith and has travelled extensively throughout Southern California. He is a delegate to the Bahai' Annual convention held in Wilmette, Illinois, the last week of April.

Hatcher's topic for this meeting will be "Modern Man Looks at Religion." The public is cordially invited to attend and no collection or admission will be taken.

44 New Ministers Ordained At Jehovah's Witnesses Convention

"The California Circuit One Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses at Del Mar Fairgrounds was the success we had hoped for," reported John P. Sutherland, who spoke Sunday on the subject "Facing Up to the Urgency of Our Times."

In outlining the pressures faced by both youths and adults he noted, "All of these are pressures brought about by man but there is yet another pressure adding to the urgency of our times and that is the approach of God's war — the battle of Armageddon. Evidence of its nearness can be seen by the news of our times that was written in advance by the Bible writers."

Highlighting the three-day color film, "Proclaiming Everlasting Good News Around the World." The film showed how the religious of ancient Babylon, a city now in ruins, adversely affects lives today.

Forty-four new ministers were ordained Saturday. The San Diego area was represented in the peak attendance of 3,040.

The Key Thought

By E. C. Ward

"While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease." (Gen. 8:22)

One morning after a terrific thunderstorm a little child came downstairs and asked, "Daddy, what was God doing last night?" The father replied, "Yes, dear, I guess He was."

This is the promise of God: Day and night, the seasons one after another, will come. The earth had just been devastated by the Flood, the routine of life destroyed. Noah looked upon the scene of desolation and then turned to God in worship. Soon the smoke of his sacrifice ascended, and his faith was shown by his works. The great curse of the Flood was gone, and the Lord promised new blessings. The seasons and the succession of day and night are to continue as long as the earth endures. Sunset and sunrise, sunrise and sunset, is the record of history and astronomy. God's promise has not failed, nor will it fail. Whenever we see the sunrise let us remember God's promise.

"Seedtime and harvest" make life possible. "Summer and winter, and day and night" are His fulfilled promises. The God of Noah is the God of nature, the God of fulfilled and fulfilling promises. Over a fireplace in Princeton University is a motto written by Albert Einstein, which reads, "God is a scientist, not a magician." God's ways of upholding the universe we call the laws of nature; they are not erratic; they are dependable because they are based upon His promises. Modern science would be impossible if they were not.

Let us learn from Noah to make God first in our lives. Have faith in God, nor day nor day nor night shall cease; Have faith in God, the seasons' due increase; Have faith in God, from Him our life and peace; Have faith, dear friend in God.

LONGS SPECIAL

★ LONGS DRUGS "WHERE EVERYBODY SAVES"

Sports Corner

by Freddie Hayes

ON PERFORMANCE shown in spring training, the power laden San Francisco Giants should run off and hide from the rest of the pack.

Alvin Dark has his team off and running at present; but, unfortunately none of these games will count. Come April 13th, the dye will be cast and the firing will be for real.

Dark is counting heavily on the two pitchers received from Milwaukee, for Filipe Alou, Bob Shaw and Bob Henley could be the answer.

THE GIANTS were hurting real bad last year for good pitching. Jack Sonsford, Billy Pierce and Billy O'dell did not repeat their performance of 1962. O'Dell started off fast but developed arm trouble and never fully recovered. Juan Marichall was the only consistent winner for San Francisco. The high kicking Marichall turned in his first 20-game season. Despite injuries which kept him out a few weeks, Marichall was 25 and 9 last year, and if Henley and Shaw helps at all, the Giants could take it all.

Newcomers Del Crandull, Jesus Alou and Hart should help bolster the defense. Dark is planning to use a team made up of Cepeda at first, Jim Davenport at second, Jose Pagan at short and Hart at third.

IN THE OUTFIELD he'll have Willie McCovey in right, Willie Mayes in center and Alou in left.

Jesus, the younger brother of the departed Felyse, has been hitting well this spring and is said to be as good or better than his brother. Behind the plate, young Tom Haller will head the catching department backed up by veteran Prandall. A pitching staff of Marichall, Sanford, Henley, O'Dell and either Bob Bolin, Billy Pierce or one of the fine rookies will be Dark's starters backed up by Don Larson and Bob Shaw.

ST. LOUIS, who made a run at the Dodgers last year, will be right back in the thick of things. The Cards will field what is probably the best infield in baseball. Bill White, a solid 300 hitter at first, Julian Javier at second, Dick Groat, the dean of shortstop at short and Ken Boyer at third.

Charley James and Carl Warlick are being counted on to replace Stan-the-man. James, who has shown signs of greatness while hovering in the shadow of Stan Musial should get the call. However, Warlick has been hitting a ton and the former Dodger could move him out.

LOOK FOR the Braves to be a big factor in the race. Bobby Brogan is rounding his team into a serious contender. The Braves acquired a good centerfielder in Filyse Alou, Milwaukee, since trading Bill Bruton to Detroit. Alou, a solid hitter should add to the attack.

With consistent Hank Aaron, Ed Matthews and Lee Maye in the lineup the Braves will cause trouble for the leaders.

HOW LONG can the aging Warren Span continue in the question mark. If Span has another good year, he will be of tremendous assistance to the fine young hurlers on the staff. Bill Clonginger and Denny Le Moster look like solid performers.

Philadelphia, with the aggressive Gene Mouch at the helm, should also be a factor in the race. The Phils were the only club to defeat the Dodgers in their head to head series. Mouch has a fine young club and gets the most out of his players.

TONY TAYLOR, former Cub had his best year as a Phillie last year as he hit a fine .284. His fine glove work around second base is second to none. With a healthy Art Mobbafey and Dennis Bennett, the Phillies should get the consistent pitching they need.

Chicago, Pittsburgh, Houston and New York will battle for the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth spots.

LOOK FOR speedy Lou Brock of the Chicago Cubs to blossom into the star he is destined to be this year. Walter Bond, former San Diego Padre to become the big stick of the Houston Colts...

Althea Gibson to make it big in professional golf... Walt Hazard to be selected by the Los Angeles Lakers as territorial property in April meeting...

Frank Robinson to make a successful comeback in 1964... Curt Flood to have another big year with the Cards... Jim Hart to pull the San Francisco infield together... Big John Henry Johnson to go right back in his role as starting fullback for the Pittsburgh Steelers come fall... Ernie Banks to have a good year with the Cubs. Gus Johnson, of the Baltimore Bullets, to run second to Cincinnati's Jerry Lucas in the rookie of the year poll in the N.B.A... Hank Aaron to become the next triple batting champ in the National league... The Boston Celtics to win their seventh world basketball championship.

NEW everyone's talking about it...
