

California artist Bertha Margaret Boyé created this award-winning poster of a western suffragist before the Golden Gate with the setting sun behind her. The campaign poster was displayed throughout San Francisco just before the successful October 10, 1911 election that enfranchised the women of California.

1911 * California Woman Suffrage Centennial * 2011