

Job Projections and Salary Information for the Information Systems Major

National Outlook (2004-2014):
US Dept. of Labor Bureau of Labor Statistics
Educational Level: Bachelor's degree

Fastest Growing Occupations

- *Network systems and data communications analysts
Physician assistants
- *Computer software engineers, applications
- *Computer software engineers, systems software
- *Network and computer systems administrators

Occupations with the Largest Numerical Job Growth

- Elementary school teachers, except special education
- Accountants and auditors
- *Computer software engineers, applications
- *Computer systems analysts
- Secondary school teachers, except special and vocational

source: www.bls.gov/emp/home.htm

 Information Systems Major affiliated occupation

For more information contact Advisors for the Information Systems Major:

Dr. Theo Addo: theo.addo@sdsu.edu

Dr. Annette Easton: annette.easton@sdsu.edu

Dr. George Easton: george.easton@sdsu.edu

California Outlook (2004-2014):
California Employment Development Dept.

Occupations with the Fastest Job Growth (% change)

- *Network Systems and Data Communications Analysts
Home Health Aides
- *Computer Software Engineers, Applications
- *Computer Software Engineers, Systems Software
- *Network and Computer Systems Administrators

source: www.bls.gov/emp/home.htm

Starting Salary Survey Data:
National Averages

Discipline	Average
*Management Information Systems/ Business Data Processing	$47,648
Finance	$47,239
Accounting	$46,718
Business Administration/Management	$43,701
Marketing	$40,161

source: National Association of Colleges and Employers, Summer 2007 Salary Survey

www.sdsu.edu/ids