

National Cheng King University Scholarship Information*****

1. National Cheng King University (NCKU) welcomes international students; therefore there is a good chance that students will receive this scholarship if they apply.

2. There is no limit on the number of students who can receive this scholarship. However, there is a limit in the amount of money that is awarded: no more than NTD$180,000/semester for each student (about US$5,722/semester).

3. If a student takes more than 5 units (credits) and stays between 3-6 months (which is the case for all SDSU students who participate in semester long programs) the student can get as much as NTD$14,400/month (about US$457/month). In addition, up to NTD$40,000 for their airline ticket (about US$1,700). But again, the total amount will be under NTD$180,000.

4. Students should apply directly at NCKU for the scholarship. However, students need to be accepted into the NCKU first since part of the scholarship application is the letter of acceptance from NCKU (see below for explanation).

***Please note that students can apply for this scholarship until after they have arrived in NCKU

5. The following is a clarification of some of the requirements in the scholarship application for items iii and v:

- (iii.) Copy of foreign language grades: this requirement is only for NCKU outgoing students. All SDSU students who will apply for this scholarship are either native English speakers or proficient in English, therefore, this document is not a requirement for SDSU students. .
- (v.) Approval/acceptance from a University. This is the letter of acceptance that NCKU mails to students once they have been accepted into NCKU. This acceptance letter is usually mail about a month after SDSU sends students' applications to Taiwan.
