FULBRIGHT GRANTS AVAILABLE TO AFRICA
2011 - 2012

Approximately 55 Fulbright Full Grants will be available for graduating seniors, graduate students and young professionals to study or do research in the following countries:

Benin	Ghana	Mozambique	South Africa
Botswana	Ivory Coast	Namibia	Swaziland
Burkina Faso	Kenya	Niger	Tanzania
Cameroon	Malawi	Nigeria	Togo
Chad	Mali	Rwanda	Uganda
Ethiopia	Mauritius	Senegal	Zambia

Grants provide maintenance for one academic year, round-trip international travel, health and accident insurance, and a research allowance.

Students proposing dissertation research may apply to countries other than those listed above, except for Angola, Burundi, Cape Verde, Central African Republic, Gabon, Gambia, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Liberia, Madagascar, Mauritania, Somalia, the Sudan and Zimbabwe, but should first check with IIE to determine country availability prior to filing an application. Candidates are responsible for arranging their own affiliations and research clearances within the host country.

Fulbright English Teaching Assistantships will be available to Cameroon, Rwanda and South Africa.

Fulbright/Fogarty Fellowships in Public Health, offered in partnership with the National Institutes of Health (NIH), will be available, to promote the expansion of research in public health and clinical research will be available to Botswana, Malawi, South Africa and Uganda.

Applicants must hold a bachelor's degree or its equivalent by the beginning date of the grant, must be U.S. citizens at the time of application, and, where applicable, have language proficiency sufficient to carry out the proposed project; candidates must be in good health.

Specific eligibility requirements, information on benefits, etc., may be accessed on IIE's website at www.us.fulbrightonline.org. Fulbright Program Advisers (FPAs) establish the campus deadline for receipt of enrolled student applications; "At-Large" students must submit their electronic applications to the U.S. Student Programs Division by October 18, 2010.
