Working Title: Explosive Anarchy: A Magic the Gathering™ Beginner's Resource

Author: Sean Harkey

Date: 8/11/08

Profile of Users: For this test three people were interviewed about the test site. All of the users have no prior background in the content of the site.

Think Aloud Task: Effectively navigate through the website from start to finish and briefly explain what they learned. Show me one resource you will use if you continue your learner beyond the site.

Summary of Think Aloud: All of the users were able to go from one page to the next in sequential order. All users were able to go back using links to reference prior resources and learning.

One user pointed out that the mood of the content was geared towards making a beginner feel more comfortable.

Summary of Post Test Interview: All three subjects agreed the site was very easy to navigate. Each remarked that they were impressed with the tones of the colors on the site. All agreed that the colors on the site helped distinguish between links, content, and also helped make the page look clean and crisp. All users thought the photography was effectively integrated and added to the overall impact of each page. Some were skeptical to whether there was meaning behind each photo. All three subjects agreed that the content was communicated effectively and that a basic understanding of the game was achieved. One indicated interest in the content. Only spelling and grammar issues were detected.

Findings To Be Implemented: Minor edits in grammar and spelling.

Findings That Will Not Be Implemented: Not Applicable.
